

DEAF OR HARD OF HEARING WITH SIGN LANGUAGE COMMUNICATION CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY (ENDORSEMENT CODE: 2423)

This endorsement entitles the holder to teach deaf or hard of hearing students using sign language communication strategies in all public schools.

Cumulative GPA Requirement

- New Jersey requires that candidates for certification achieve a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 when a GPA of 4.00 equals an A grade for students graduating on or after September 1, 2016 (2.75 for those graduating before September 1, 2016) in a baccalaureate degree program, higher degree program or a State-approved post-baccalaureate certification program with a minimum of 13 semester-hour credits.
- Please note that there are GPA Flexibility Rules where a high praxis score may offset a GPA that is lower than 3.0, but higher than 2.75.

Instructional Certification

- The Teacher of Deaf or Hard of Hearing with Sign Language Communication is not a standalone certificate. Candidates need to hold a CE, CEAS or standard NJ instructional certificate with an endorsement appropriate to the subject or grade level to be taught. If you have not yet applied for instructional certification, please see the NJ DOE website for details and a listing of instructional endorsements.

Testing Requirements

- Basic Skills Assessment Requirement (choose one)
All candidates applying for their initial CE must pass a Commissioner-approved test of basic skills. Scores must be presented directly from Educational Testing Service to the NJ Department of Education. Only official scores are accepted. The New Jersey Department of Education code (R7666) and your Social Security number must appear on your test score report in order to be accepted. Please submit a copy of your test score report if you have taken the appropriate exams.

OR

Score in the top one-third percentile on the SAT, ACT, or GRE for the year the test was taken. Official score reports must be sent directly from the testing agency.
