

Extending Student Learning Beyond the Classroom

Early Childhood Education

Resources for Engaging Parents and Families in Student Learning and Development

Fall 2022

The primary goal of the Fall 2022 Kindergarten to Third Grade Resource Packet is to strengthen student learning and development by extending learning beyond the classroom. The resources are designed to support educators and provide them with tools and strategies so they can effectively empower and engage the parents and families of their students.

