

Quote from Rosalie Weiser-Klein:

“My beloved mother Chana was born in the early 1900’s in Sosnowitz, Poland. She survived the Holocaust because I shielded her from being killed and we subsequently moved to New Jersey where she died in 1984.”