

Was the only member of her immediate family to survive the Holocaust. After living in an Austrian displacement camp for several years with her husband Louis and newly born daughter Eileen, the three of them emigrated to the US in 1949. She eventually settled in Vineland, NJ in the early 1950's and lived there until she passed away in 1981.

Anna, Eileen and Louis Stepak