

NJDOE News

Contact: Richard Vespucci
For Release: May 8, 2002

Advisory Union County Teachers Recognized

One hundred seventeen teachers from schools throughout Union County will be recognized on Thursday, May 9, at a special reception in their honor. The teachers, who were all selected by a panel of individuals representing teachers, administrators and community members, will receive certificates in the Union County Teacher Recognition Program.

Reporters and photographers are invited to cover the event, which will be held between 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. at L’Affaire, Route 22 in Mountainside.

Attached is a list of the 117 teachers selected for the Union County Teacher Recognition Program.