Warren County Teachers Recognized

Twenty-four teachers from schools throughout Warren County will be recognized on May 23, 2002 at a special reception in the honor. The teachers, who were all selected by a panel of individuals representing teachers, administrators and community members, will receive certificates in the Warren County Teacher Recognition Program.

The ceremony will begin at 8:30 a.m. in the front parlour of the Seay Building, Centenary College, Hackettstown.
Reporters and photographers are invited to attend.
