Advisory

A revised list of Title I schools and their category designations based on student performance is now available on the Department of Education's Web site. The new list contains revised category designations for five schools.

The five schools which were given new category designations are:

Carlstadt Public Schools

- Lincoln School -changed from category I to not rated, data suppressed because of insufficient number of students

Greenwich Township

- Morris Goodwin Elementary School -changed from category I to not rated, data suppressed because of insufficient number of students

North Brunswick

- Parsons Elementary School-changed from category IV to category V
- Arthur Judd Elementary School-changed from category IV to category V

Montclair

- Bradford School-changed from category II to category III

The revised list updates a list originally released on May 2 and is available at the following address:
