As part of continued conversations with the community of Camden about the future of the city's schools, Department of Education Commissioner Chris Cerf and Camden Mayor Dana Redd will host a joint town hall meeting in Camden next Thursday, April 18, 2013.

All members of the community are invited to attend to share their thoughts on changes they would like to see in the city's schools, what challenges they currently see for the future, and how the Department and community can work together to ensure Camden's students are prepared for college and careers upon graduation.

Community Townhall with Commissioner Cerf and Mayor Redd
Thursday, April 18, 2013

6:00pm

Malandra Hall

New Jersey & Merrimac Roads

Camden, NJ 08104

Fulfilling the promise to engage community members as the State takes the next steps in the intervention plan, the town hall meeting is the first in a series of meetings Department of Education staff will host with the Camden community.
