

Introduction Handout 7: Resources and References

This handout provides additional resources and research to support student responsible decision-making and social and emotional learning (SEL) broadly. Many of these resources were used to develop the content of this module. You may want to refer to this handout for resources as you create your action plan with Handout 8.

For more information about New Jersey Department of Education's (NJDOE's) SEL efforts, contact NJDOE Office of Student Support Services at SchoolClimate@doe.nj.gov.

General Resources Supporting Social and Emotional Learning

The following organizations have additional resources to help you begin SEL implementation:

The Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning is a leader in SEL.

- Two key resources mentioned in the module include the 2013 and 2015 CASEL Guides, which outline SEL programs with the most rigorous research base for preschool through high school.

The Center on Great Teachers and Leaders' SEL School provides tools and strategies to integrate SEL with college and career readiness standards and teacher evaluation systems.

- One tool mentioned in the module includes Teaching the Whole Child: Instructional Practices That Support Social-Emotional Learning in Three Teacher Evaluation Frameworks.

Edutopia's Social and Emotional Learning webpage provides an online learning hub for SEL research, videos, and classroom materials.

The National Clearinghouse on Supportive School Discipline reviews SEL research, tools, and strategies, and examples of SEL practice in schools.

The ASCD Whole Child initiative provides a variety of tools and resources to help educators learn about and implement SEL in schools.

The Aspen Institute National Commission on Social, Emotional, and Academic Development provides a variety of tools, readings, and resources to support SEL.

- One resource mentioned in the module includes A Sampling of the Literature on Social, Emotional, and Academic Development.
