Commissioner's Reports

Comprehensive Accountability Office Report-Jersey City

Chris Huber, Special Assistant to the Commissioner along with Dr. Elnardo Webster, Highly Skilled Professional from the Jersey City Public School District provided an update on the Jersey City Public School District's progress in the transition to local control. Chris Huber stated the District's Transition Plan for the Return of Local Control became effective on October 25, 2018. He also stated the projected end date of the Transition plan is October 25, 2020.

They reported that the Department partnered with the Bloustein Local Government Research Center of Rutgers University to form a Comprehensive Accountability Office or CAO responsible for collecting and publishing data that corresponds to the Scorecard and demonstrates whether the District is making substantial and sustainable progress on the accountability metrics. The CAO found that although the District may be implementing the activities on the scorecard, there are not systems in place that institutionalize the action/practices or that result in documentation to demonstrate compliance.

The information provided by the Highly Skilled Professionals (HSP's) provides anecdotal information and/or addresses sections of the Transition Plan that are not on the Scorecard. The information provided by the HSP's demonstrates that the District is adjusting internal controls to successfully implement the Transition Plan.
