

State of New Jersey
STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Adoption Resolution
May 6, 2020

Resolution in Honor of Mrs. Margit Feldman

Whereas, longtime New Jersey resident Mrs. Margit Feldman survived imprisonment in a series of Nazi concentration camps in her youth, where she was forced to perform hard labor and had the identification "A23029" tattooed on her arm; and

Whereas, Mrs. Feldman was liberated from the Bergen-Belsen concentration camp in Germany on April 15, 1945; and

Whereas, Mrs. Feldman emigrated to the United States approximately two years later and eventually settled in New Jersey; and

Whereas, Mrs. Feldman shared her remarkable story of surviving the Holocaust by speaking to many students over the years and through her 2003 memoir "Margit: A Teenager's Journey Through the Holocaust and Beyond" and the 2016 documentary "Not A23029"; and

Whereas, Mrs. Feldman helped pass the state laws that created the New Jersey Holocaust Education Commission and mandated that curricula in New Jersey's public elementary and secondary schools include instruction about the Holocaust and genocide; and

Whereas, Mrs. Feldman was an original member of the New Jersey Holocaust Education Commission and a founding member of the Holocaust and Genocide Institute at Raritan Valley Community College; and

Whereas, the Commission was such personal and important work to Mrs. Feldman that it became a family affair and she recruited her husband Harvey, who also recently passed away, to photograph New Jersey Holocaust Education Commission events; and

Whereas, Mrs. Feldman, a mother of two and grandmother of three, was active in her synagogue and with organizations like the Jewish Federation of Somerset, Hunterdon and Warren Counties; and now therefore be it

Resolved, that the New Jersey State Board of Education and the Commissioner of Education recognize and posthumously honor Mrs. Margit Feldman and her commitment to teaching students about the Holocaust and ensuring the atrocities of genocide will never be forgotten.

---

Lamont O. Repollet, Ed.D., Commissioner
Secretary, N.J. State Board of Education

---

Kathy Goldenberg, President
N.J. State Board of Education