New Jersey Partnership for Student Success (NJPSS): State Board of Education Update

Division of Teaching and Learning Services

June 7, 2023

Agenda

- NJPSS in Action
 - Sector Updates
 - Call to Action in Motion
 - The Horizon

NJPSS in Action

- A component of NJPSS, The Call to Action aims to harness the energy of volunteers to support school districts by increasing their capacity to serve students through volunteerism in specific roles as:
 - tutors,
 - mentors,
 - student success coaches,
 - wraparound service coordinators, and
 - postsecondary transition coaches.

Sector Updates

Service	Description	Need
Mentor	Provide on-going support to individual students to help them navigate their world	47%
Post-Secondary Transition Coach	Support students with navigating college and career decisions	16%
Student Success Coach	Support students with social-emotional skill building	48%
Tutor	Small group academic support	70%
Wrap-around Service Support	General support for school programming. (i.e., out-of-school-time program support, reading buddies, club support, one-time event support, etc.)	31%

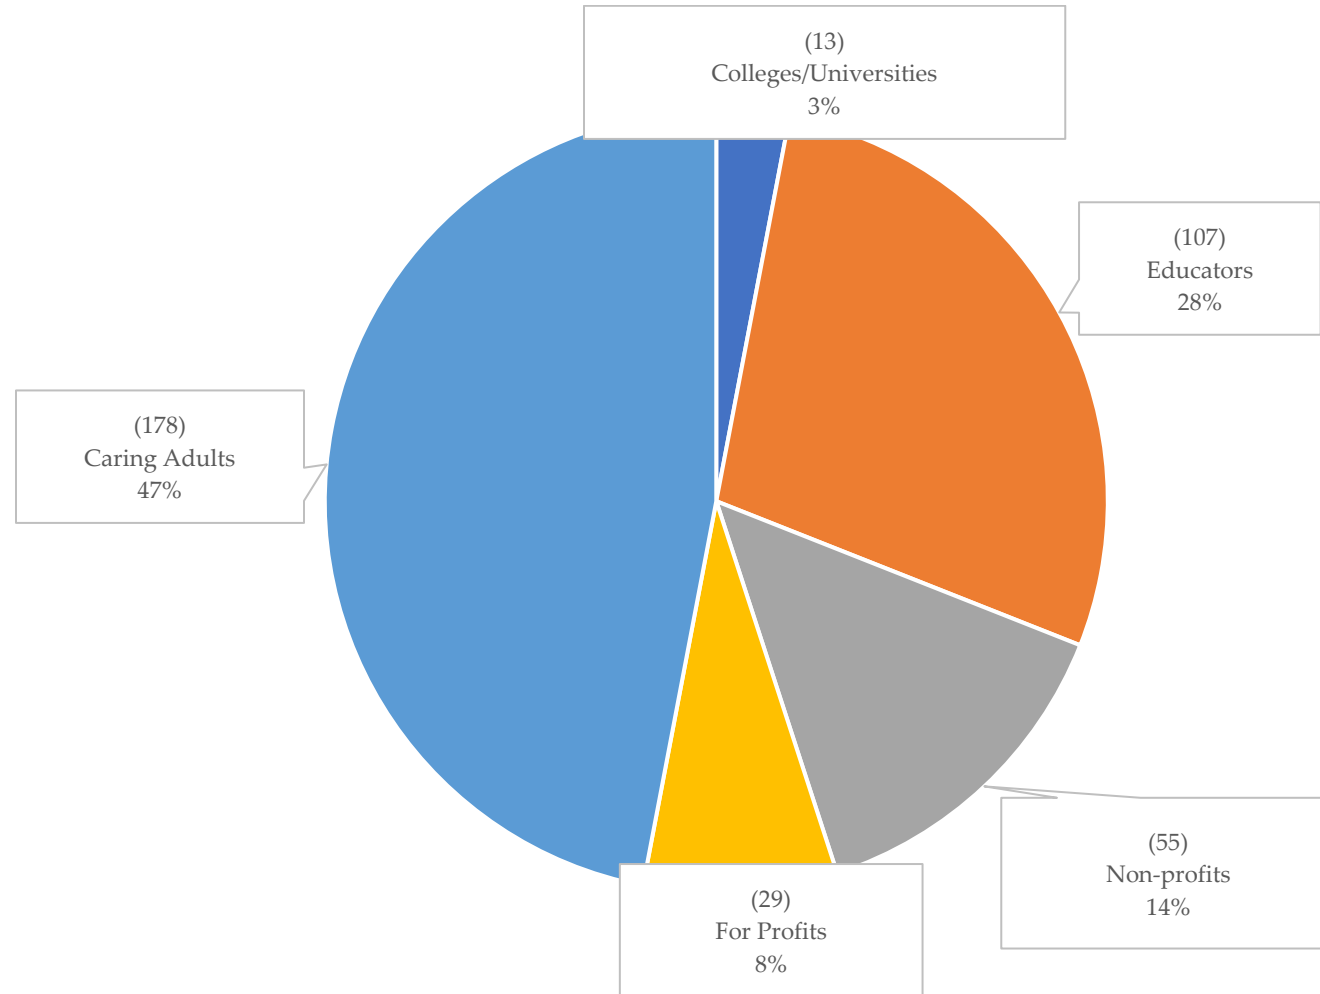

Call to Action in Motion

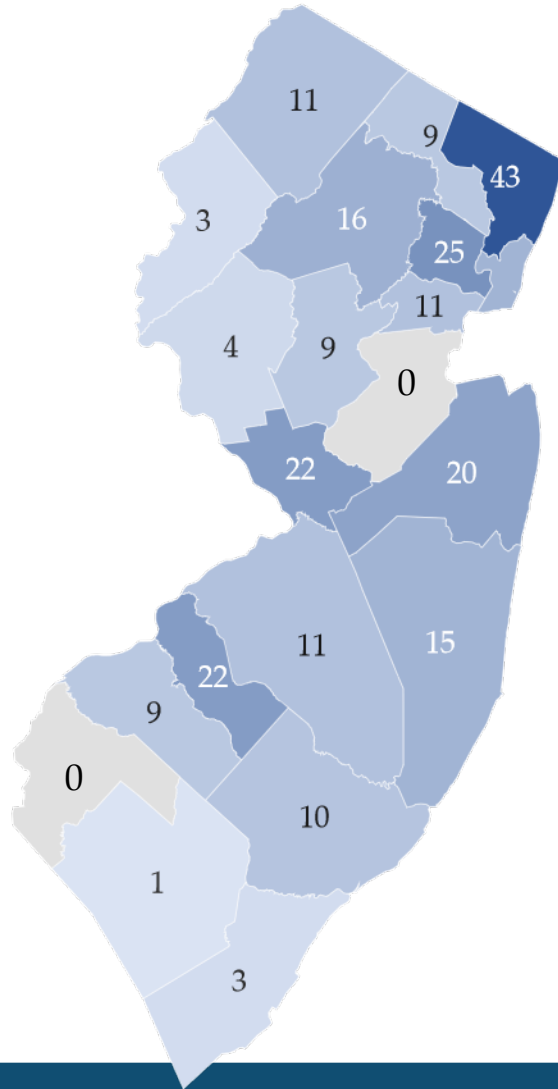

1. Everyone responding to the Call to Action receives a welcome email.
2. The NJDOE Call to Action team organizes each inquiry and determines the appropriate response/next step.
3. The database is queried to determine best fit, according to geography, interests and talents and LEA-identified student needs.
4. Volunteers are connected to LEAs with all opportunities of partnership available to them.

Volunteer and Partner Landscape

Matching the Call to Action

- 259 volunteers have been introduced to 100 school districts
- 90% of counties have successfully matched volunteers

The Horizon

- Over 20 colleges, universities and organizations that expressed interest have been interviewed to identify capacity and scope of reach.
- The universe of these volunteers within these organizations continues to expand.
- The Department will continue to utilize an ongoing plan to connect organizations to LEAs.

Thank You!
