V. APPLICATION NARRATIVE

Please respond to the following items in not more than two typewritten (12 pt. font) pages for each section. Use the numbers and section headings below:

1. NEED This section identifies the local conditions and/or needs that justify the program. All applicants must:
   - Describe the need for the alternative education program, including available data; and
   - How the proposed program will address the identified needs.
   - The type of students who will be served by the proposed program.

2. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION. This section provides a detailed description of the proposed program and the plan for implementation. All of the following must be provided in this section:
   - An outline of the measurable goals, objectives, activities and related timelines related to student outcomes;
   - A description of how the proposed program will ensure alignment with the Core Curriculum Content Standards;
   - A description of the educational methods and materials used to achieve the instructional objectives;
   - A description of the strategies that will be employed to promote a high attendance rate, support student engagement and help students meet the graduation requirements;
   - A proposed program schedule;
   - A description of the supportive services (e.g., counseling, health services, and substance awareness support) that will be available to students and the families of those students enrolled in the program;
   - A description of how the proposed program will facilitate a positive school climate (including, but not limited to social emotional and character development, service learning, etc…);
   - A description of how the students will be transported to the proposed site;
   - If applicable, a description of how the program will involve other entities (e.g., multiple schools, multiple districts or community collaborators) in order to efficiently serve students; and
   - A description of how the applicant intends to facilitate parental involvement for proposed program.

3. ENTRANCE/EXIT CRITERIA. This section provides a description of the processes used to identify eligible students for the alternative education program and transition them back to their general education program. All of the following must be described in this section:
   - The mechanism that will be used to identify and refer students to the program; the selection criteria and the placement procedures to be used when placing a student in the program (explain the differences, if any, in the referral processes used by different schools that may refer students to the program);
   - How the Individual Program Plans (IPP) will be created, monitored and annually reviewed by the alternative education program and the sending school district; and
   - The procedures to be used to facilitate the transition from school-to-work or post-secondary training and education, and/or to return students who have or have not achieved program objectives to the district’s regular program, when suitable.

4. STAFFING. This section describes the staffing to be employed in the proposed program. Describe all of the following:
   - How the proposed program will provide sufficient staff to teach and oversee the program, include the teacher to student ratio for each grade level in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:16-9.2(a)1 and 2 (maximum student teacher ratio 12:1 for high school and 10:1 for middle school);
   - How the proposed program will provide professional development opportunities to staff that reflect the unique needs of working in an alternative education program setting;
   - The procedures for supervising and evaluating the alternative education program;
   - The titles, certifications and/or endorsements, and names, if applicable, of all teaching and support staff who will work in the program (e.g., teachers, school aides, teacher assistants, counselors), including those that are Highly Qualified in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:9 and N.J.A.C. 6A:8-5.1; and
   - The responsibilities of the administrative, supervisory, and instructional staff, including community resource persons, as appropriate to the program.
5. EVALUATION. This section describes the method in which the proposed program will be assessed and evaluated. Address the following:
   - How student progress and grade level attainment will be assessed; and
   - How the program will monitor and evaluate its own effectiveness.
