Re: Waiver to the Provisions of N.J.S.A. 52:13D-17.2(b)

Dear Ms. Camiso:

At its September 17, 2019 meeting, the State Ethics Commission considered your request on behalf of Janice Schopfer, Clerk Typist, Department of Children and Families, whose son, Matthew Schopfer., is currently employed by the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino as a Security Officer. Based on the facts and circumstances set forth below, the Commission granted a waiver of the general prohibition of section 17.2(b).

Generally, Section 17.2(b) of the Conflicts Law prohibits all State officers and employees and members of their immediate families from holding an interest in, holding employment with, representing, appearing for, or negotiating on behalf of the holder of, or applicant for, a casino license or any holding or intermediary company with respect thereto. However, the statute also contains the following exception language:

except that ... a member of the immediate family of a State officer or employee, or person, may hold employment with the holder of, or applicant for, a casino license if, in the judgment of the State Ethics Commission ... such employment will not interfere with the responsibilities of the State officer or employee, or person, and will not create a conflict of interest, or reasonable risk of the public perception of a conflict of interest, on the part of the State officer or employee, or person ....

The Commission agrees that there is no conflict between Ms. Schopfer's position at Department of Children and Families and her son's employment at the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino. Ms. Schopfer's position and her son's employment do not overlap, and there is no conflict of interest or reasonable risk of the public perceiving any kind of conflict between her position and her son's casino employment.

Based on the facts and circumstances set forth above, the Commission granted the waiver of the general prohibition of section 17.2(b) in the case of Janice Schopfer and her son, Matthew Schopfer.

Very truly yours,

STATE ETHICS COMMISSION
