Re: Waiver to the Provisions of N.J.S.A. 52:13D-17.2(b)

Dear Ms. Kemether:

At its July 28, 2020 meeting, the State Ethics Commission considered your request on behalf of Dorothy Amoriello, Technician, Motor Vehicle Commission, whose husband, Ronald Amoriello, is currently employed by the Show Boat Casino as a warehouse employee. Based on the facts and circumstances set forth below, the Commission granted a waiver of the general prohibition of section 17.2(b).

Generally, Section 17.2(b) of the Conflicts Law prohibits all State officers and employees and members of their immediate families from holding an interest in, holding employment with, representing, appearing for, or negotiating on behalf of the holder of, or applicant for, a casino license or any holding or intermediary company with respect thereto. However, the statute also contains the following exception language:

except that ... a member of the immediate family of a State officer or employee, or person, may hold employment with the holder of, or applicant for, a casino license if, in the judgment of the State Ethics Commission ... such employment will not interfere with the responsibilities of the State officer or employee, or person, and will not create a conflict of interest, or reasonable risk of the public perception of a conflict of interest, on the part of the State officer or employee, or person ....

The Commission agrees that there is no conflict between Mrs. Amoriello's position at the Motor Vehicle Commission and her husband's employment with the Show Boat Casino. Mrs. Amoriello's position and her husband's employment do not overlap, and there is no conflict of interest or reasonable risk of the public perceiving any kind of conflict between her position and her husband's casino employment.

Based on the facts and circumstances set forth above, the Commission granted the waiver of the general prohibition of section 17.2(b) in the case of Dorothy Amoriello and her husband, Ronald Amoriello

Very truly yours,

STATE ETHICS COMMISSION
