Edit your Application

If you would like to report a Qualifying Life Event including pregnancy, birth, adoption, a death, or moving, click the "Edit Application" button.

NEXT STEPS

(i)

You missed the opportunity to enroll in a plan during 2022 open enrollment period. If you would like to report a change in income, household members, or something else please click the 'EDIT APPLICATION' button below. You will have an option enroll in a plan if the change reported by you is a qualifying life event.

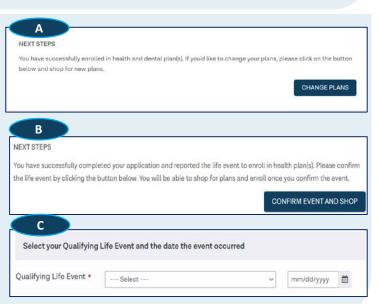

EDIT APPLICATION

Check if you qualify for a Special Enrollment Period here. If you do not have a Qualifying Life Event, you can update your coverage during Open Enrollment – please check back between November 1 and January 31.

3 Review Results & Report Qualifying Life Event (if needed)

After submitting your application, review your eligibility results and go to the account dashboard. Under Next Steps, you will either see:

- 1. A "Change Plans" button if you have automatically qualified for a Special Enrollment Period based on your updated application information (see A); or,
- A "Confirm Event and Shop" button to provide more information about your Qualifying Life Event (see B). Select the Qualifying Life Event that applies to you and provide any requested dates (see C). If you qualify, you will see "Change Plans" (see A).

Change Health Plan (if needed)

Once you see the "Change Plans" button, choose a health plan within the timeframe on your account dashboard (usually 60 days from your reported life event).

Pay your first month's Premium

You must pay your first month's premium before your enrollment can be finalized.
