

Gender of Confirmed Silicosis Cases, 1979-2013

The majority of confirmed silicosis cases (n=529, 90%) were men. As shown below, this is representative of the 2010 NJ worker population at risk for exposure to silica dust.

Gender Representativeness
of NJ Silicosis Cases
1979-2013
N=587

