Cumberland County College's Student Right to Know data includes information on fall entering cohorts of first-time, full-time, freshmen. In addition to percentages of this group of students who complete a degree or certificate or who transfer to another institution prior to completing a degree or certificate, success rates also can include percentages of these students who are still enrolled at the College and students who left the institution with a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or above. When these groups of students -persisters and stop-outs- are included in the success rate, the College has an 80.2 percent success rate for the entering Fall 2003 cohort.
