English for Speakers of Other Languages is a non-credit program of study designed for students whose native language is not English but who already have some fundamental knowledge of English as determined by a placement examination administered on the CCM campus. The academically oriented curriculum provides international students with the linguistic knowledge, cultural awareness and strong study skills appropriate for college studies. Students in the program will be allowed to matriculate in a college curriculum upon satisfactory completion of the program.

CCM received certification from the Committee on National Security Systems for its program in Information Security. The certification ensures that the program adheres to the National Training Standards for Systems Security Professionals. CCM is the only community college in New Jersey to be granted the certification.

County College of Morris

CCM became a certified provider of continuing education courses for nurses and allied health professionals. The certification was granted by the New Jersey State Nurses Association (NJSNA), which is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Active and inactive nurses and allied health professionals will be able to earn the continuing education credits they need to upgrade their skills and renew their specialty certification and licenses.
