

Warren County Community College
2008 Institutional Profile
I. Major Research & Public Service Activities

Warren County is committed to being a community educational partner and is therefore constantly engaged with the community on various activities. Below is a sampling of our efforts to “bring the college to the community.”

- The College has assisted with the development and promoting of the Skylands Tourism Council.
- Warren County Community College created WCCC CARES, a program designed to teach students to manage peer pressure and its negative social effects. In total, more than 500 students participated in various events.
- The College launched Sigma Alpha Pi, a national society of leadership and success. Students had to meet specific academic and community service requirements. In total, more than 60 students completed the program.
- The College sponsored the 3rd annual Warren County Community College Youth Chess Championship. This tournament drew more than 30 participants.
- Dr. William Austin completed a book titled, “Dollars and Sense” and it focuses on budgeting skills for young adults.
- WCCC participated in more than a dozen town and county fairs. This includes the Farmers’ Fair, Phillipsburg Old Town Festival, the Knowlton Riverfest and more.
- The College had presenters at the 2008 Best Practices Conference that spoke on the topic of Fundraising and Research.
