The College of New Jersey

The College of New Jersey (TCNJ) is a highly selective institution that has earned national recognition for its commitment to excellence in undergraduate education. Founded in 1855, TCNJ has become an exemplar of the best in public higher education and is consistently acknowledged as one of the top comprehensive colleges in the nation. TCNJ currently is ranked as one of the 75 “Most Competitive” schools in the nation by Barron’s Profiles of American Colleges and is rated the number one public master’s college in the northern region of the country by U.S. News & World Report. TCNJ was named the number ten value in public higher education by the Princeton Review in 2009 and, in 2006, was awarded a Phi Beta Kappa chapter—an honor shared by less than 10 percent of colleges and universities nationally.

TCNJ offers a comprehensive range of academic programs in the liberal arts, sciences, as well as professional schools. TCNJ is committed to significant learning experiences at every level, beginning with academic seminars for first semester students and culminating in capstone courses for seniors. There are no teaching assistants—all classes are taught by faculty members—and a 12-to-1 student-to-faculty ratio allows for small classes and personalized attention. Specialized undergraduate research programs, internships, and global study opportunities at TCNJ equal or surpass what is offered by top private colleges.

Commitment to Success

- TCNJ has a unique mission among state colleges. That mission calls for the provision, to a diverse community of learners, of an undergraduate, residential experience that is highly competitive and designed to produce future leaders of and significant contributors to fields that are critical to our state. TCNJ has been quite successful in fulfilling that mission.

 - TCNJ is the only New Jersey college or university to make U.S. News’ list of 70 up-and-coming institutions.
 - TCNJ is one of only 5 state-supported schools nationally to be named among Barron’s Profiles of American Colleges’ 75 most competitive colleges. The others are UVA, UNC Chapel Hill, William and Mary, and UCLA.
 - TCNJ is a national model of teacher-scholarship, and, through programs like the Mentored Undergraduate Summer Experience, encourages undergraduate-faculty collaboration in research.

Results

- TCNJ has the 5th highest graduation rate of public colleges and universities nationwide and surpasses those achieved by many prestigious private institutions.

- TCNJ students and faculty have won numerous major fellowships during the last decade, including Carnegie, Fulbright, Marshall, Gates Millennium, Goldwater, Phi Kappa Phi, Truman, and National Science Foundation awards.
- According to the most recent National Survey for Student Engagement, TCNJ bettered the average of its Carnegie Foundation peers in the level of academic challenge, active and collaborative learning, student-faculty interaction, enriching educational experiences, and supportive campus environment, as they apply to the experience of first-year students.
- Since 1985, TCNJ has made it to 70 NCAA athletic championships and won 38 Division III national titles while producing 48 Division III Academic All-Americans.

Faculty and Staff Excellence

- TCNJ's faculty and staff members are nurturing instructors and national leaders in their fields who are frequently acknowledged for their excellence. They are a source of pride and recognition for the state. A few examples from the last year alone include:
 - Dean Susan Bakewell-Sachs, who was selected for the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Executive Nurse Fellowship, one of just 20 nurse leaders chosen nationally for this program;
 - Professor Jess Row, who was named to Granta's "Best of Young American Novelists" 2007 list, which is published by the literary magazine every 10 years and includes only 21 distinguished young writers born after 1970;
 - Women's lacrosse coach Sharon Pfluger, who joined the 50th class of the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame;
 - Assistant Provost Bob Anderson, who was named an Outstanding First-year Student Advocate by the National Resource Center for First-year Experience and Students in Transition.

Invaluable to Students and the State

- Kiplinger's Personal Finance rates TCNJ as the 5th best value in public higher education nationally for out of state students and the 23rd best value for in-state students in 2008--significantly higher than any other New Jersey school.
- TCNJ offers a campus that has been ranked among the 20 most beautiful in the nation by The Princeton Review as well as a library that is rated #4 nationally by the publication, trailing only Harvard, Princeton, and Duke Universities.
- More than 90% of TCNJ students are New Jersey residents
- 74.1% of students admitted to but declining to enroll at TCNJ leave New Jersey for their college education, according to data from the National Clearinghouse. TCNJ helps keep many students in New Jersey who would otherwise leave to seek baccalaureate education.

- TCNJ attracts high-achieving students from out of state who rank in the top 10% of their high school classes and have SAT scores of approximately 1,300 out of 1,600
- Most TCNJ students (64%) graduate in four years, and nearly all have earned degrees within five (81%) or six years (86%). At other state colleges and universities, only about 30% of students graduate in four years, and less than 53% graduate within six years. That means TCNJ students pay for fewer years of education and save in excess of $30,000 in total cost compared to their peers at other New Jersey colleges and universities. Therefore, the majority of TCNJ's students also have an additional two years of post-college earning power.
- 89% of TCNJ's most recent graduating class rated their undergraduate academic experience and career preparation as either excellent or above average.
- 97% of TCNJ's most recent graduating class indicated that their career preparation was excellent, above average, or average.
- Students have highest first time passing rates in the state for CPA exam, Education (Praxis) exam, and Engineering Fundamentals exam
- 43,000 of The College's 64,000+ alumni live or work in the State of New Jersey
- During the last five years, TCNJ has secured increasing numbers of federal grants providing millions of dollars for programs that improve the quality and diversity of New Jersey's teachers and increase the participation of underrepresented groups in the sciences.
- TCNJ has maintained a service-learning requirement of all first year students. This provides local and state communities with approximately 20,000 hours of community service each year.
