

SECTION A ACCREDITATION STATUS

INSTITUTIONAL ACCREDITATION

Brookdale Community College is accredited by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, the accrediting agency for all colleges in the mid-Atlantic region. The Commission on Higher Education is an institutional accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education and the Commission on Recognition of Postsecondary Accreditation. Accreditation status is reviewed every five years and re-accreditation occurs at ten-year intervals.

Brookdale was awarded an unqualified accreditation from the Middle States Visiting Team in Spring 2008. In addition to achieving complete fulfillment of all 14 standards of The Characteristics of Excellence, the visiting team commended Brookdale's leadership for encouraging and supporting a culture of engagement and assessment. The College was also issued commendations for clearly integrating the planning and assessment processes so that the results of assessment are used to develop plans to improve teaching, learning and institutional effectiveness.

Brookdale is certified by the State of New Jersey and the United States Department of Education to grant associate degrees to students who complete formal programs of study. All of Brookdale's A.A., A.F.A., A.S., A.A.S., and Certificate programs are approved by the New Jersey Commission on Higher Education.
