

I. Major Capital Projects Underway in FY 2012

The College completed its acquisition of a new facility at 445 Marshall Street in Phillipsburg, NJ in July 2011. This facility, which was purchased through Chapter 12 funds, primarily supports the College's Continuing Education programs and services. The College also completed a library renovation project at its Washington Campus in October 2011.