A. Accreditation Status

Institutional Accreditations

Mercer was initially accredited in 1970, and this accreditation was renewed for ten years in 1975, 1985, 1995, and 2005. The college submitted a decennial self-study in January 2015; it provided a comprehensive overview of institutional progress since the college’s Periodic Review Report (PRR) in 2010 and decennial self-study in 2005. The Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE) acted in June 2015 to warn the college that its accreditation may be in jeopardy because of insufficient evidence that the college is currently in compliance with Standard 7 (Institutional Effectiveness) and Standard 14 (Assessment of Student Learning). The follow-up monitoring report, due to the Commission March 2016, is already in progress and will demonstrate that the college has made appropriate improvements to bring itself into compliance. While on warning, the college remains accredited by MSCHE. In addition, the State of New Jersey’s Board of Higher Education continues to authorize the college to award the associates degree.

Professional Accreditations

The New Jersey Board of Nursing approves and the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN) accredits the college’s Associate Degree Nursing program. The Radiography program is accredited by the Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology and approved by the New Jersey Radiologic Technology Board of Examiners. The Medical Laboratory Technology program is accredited by the National Accrediting Agency of Clinical Laboratory Sciences. The Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapist Education of the American Physical Therapy Education has given accreditation to the Physical Therapist Assistant program. The American Bar Association accredits the Legal Assistant program. The Technology Accreditation Commission of the Accreditation Board for Engineering & Technology accredits the Civil Engineering Technology program. The American Board of Funeral Service Education accredits the Funeral Services program. Mercer’s Aviation Flight Technology program became the first two-year aviation program in the nation to be accredited by the Aviation Accreditation Board International.

G. Profile of Institution

Mercer County Community College was established in 1966. It began operations in the summer of 1967 after incorporating the former Trenton Junior College and The School of Industrial Arts, an institution whose history dates from 1898. Initially housed in various rented facilities in downtown Trenton, the college moved in 1972 to a comprehensive new campus located on 290 acres adjacent to a sprawling new county park in suburban/rural West Windsor Township. Limited operations continued in Trenton until 1976, when the newly constructed Trenton Campus opened as a visible sign of the college's continuing commitment to serve the Trenton community.

Degree and Certificate Programs

The scope of Mercer's educational offerings is among the broadest in the state of New Jersey. H. Major Research and Public Service Activities

Mercer is a publicly assisted co-educational institution of higher education that provides quality programs and services at a reasonable cost. Funding is secured through state support (distributed among the various New Jersey community colleges according to enrollment), annual county allocation, student tuition and fees, and supplemental grants. The college offers associate degrees and certificates in over 70 programs. The Mercer Institute of Management and Technology Training provides a full range of customizable training for business and industries throughout the region. Similarly, the Center for Continuing Studies offers a range of non-credit programs and course offerings for the citizens of Mercer County.

With campuses in West Windsor and downtown Trenton (the state's capital), Mercer operates under a one-college philosophy that ensures equitable educational opportunities and services to all students. Full-time faculty members teach both day and evening courses at the West Windsor campus and James Kerney campus. Academic divisions and support-service departments serve students at both campuses and are responsible for day, evening and weekend students as well as those who enroll in online courses via MercerOnline.

During the 2014-2015 academic year, MCCC launched new degree programs in Cybersecurity and Energy Systems Technology. The College was awarded a major multi-year NSF S-STEM grant to support scholarships for full-time students pursuing STEM majors. In addition, the college also offers fully online degree programs in Liberal Arts, Criminal Justice (the Corrections option) and Business Studies. The College welcomed its second cohort this year in the American Honors at Mercer Program, a partnership with American Honors, designed for students interested in academic challenge and active advisement toward college completion and successful transfer. The University Center allows students to continue their studies through the Bachelor's degree with our on-campus partners - Fairleigh Dickinson University, Felician College, Rutgers University and William Paterson University. The Dual enrollment program has expanded to include four area high schools and the County Vocational Technical School's Health Science Academy. The College also offers a number of pre-college opportunities through Youth College including federally funded TRIO Programs (Upward Bound and Educational Talent Search). The Dual enrollment program has expanded to six area high schools including the County's Vocational Technical School.

Mercer County Community College is a cultural hub. The Kelsey Theatre provides a full slate of musical and dramatic productions for both adults and children. The college's Art Gallery exhibits six major shows per year. A listener-supported public radio network offers classical music programming at 89.1 WWFM and a new HD-2 channel for jazz on the same frequency. Mercer hosts a series of speakers on topics of interest to the community through its Distinguished Lecture Series. The Conference Center at Mercer serves as a host location for events sponsored by regional, state and local organizations; and, finally, the Camp College offers summer enrichment programs to hundreds of children throughout the Mercer County region.

Mercer is actively providing global education experiences for our students both inside and outside of the classroom and internationally. Students have many opportunities to observe, learn about, and engage the world community which has a great benefit of providing them with the tools they will need to be successful global citizens in an exceedingly interconnected world. Mercer provides study abroad opportunities for students to learn from real-world exposure to various peoples and cultures; robust ESL programming for students for whom English is not their native language; over 9 for-credit world language offerings; free online access to Rosetta Stone for any student looking to learn another language independently; and diversity and global perspective general education courses that are incorporated into all degree programs. In addition, Mercer has a rich International Student program where approximately 125 international students from more than 50 different countries are offered F-1 visas to come to Mercer to earn Associate degrees.

Mercer is a destination site for area high school athletes seeking scholarship opportunities through sports. The men's and women's soccer teams are Division I; cross-country for women is Division I. Baseball, softball, and men's and women's basketball participate in Division II and our Division III teams are men's and women's tennis.

While our faculty and staff are major supporters and a catalyst for the area's vibrant non-profit community, the College itself is the centerpiece of the activities for many non-profits and educational entities. Each year, the College participates in the American Heart Association Heart Walk. Our 290-acre campus is used frequently for similar walks for March of Dimes, Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS), The American Cancer Society, etc. Various non-profit or other groups use the College facilities every day of the week, and these activities are coordinated with our security personnel for the health and safety of students and community members. The College continues to house the Mercer County Police Academy and the Mercer County Fire Academy.
