Rowan College of South Jersey – Gloucester Campus
2019 Institutional Profile

Preface

On July 1, 2019, Rowan College at Gloucester County and Cumberland County College merged to create South Jersey's first regional college. Rowan College of South Jersey — a new regional college, academically designed to transform higher education in New Jersey. Together these two campuses offer more than 120 unique degrees and certificates, combining 100 years of experience to provide a variety of degree selections, cost-saving initiatives and scholarship and internship opportunities, at one of the lowest tuition rates in the state. This pioneering, hybrid institution provides students with more choices, including the option to pursue advanced degrees at Rowan University and other four-year universities, without ever leaving the Rowan College of South Jersey campuses.

The merger of these two community colleges, in conjunction with an expanded 10-year premier partnership agreement with Rowan University, leads the way to a future filled with diverse, one-of-a-kind educational opportunities. Ambitious teenage students seeking a head start on their college studies can take classes and save money with high school dual enrollment programs, including Rowan High School Start and the High School Option Program (HSOP). Through exclusive programs like Rowan Choice and 3+1 degree offerings, students save substantially on their education and easily transition to Rowan University for a bachelor's degree. Academic and workforce training programs ensure the availability of skilled employees, answering both professional and community needs.

With two campuses, increased program selections, a premier partnership with Rowan University, affordable tuition and numerous transfer routes, Rowan College of South Jersey offers students more advantages than ever before.

I am pleased to submit Rowan College of South Jersey's Institutional Profile report for the Fiscal Year from July 1, 2018, to June 30, 2019. All required information is included and, to the extent possible, is accurate and complete.

Sincerely,

Frederick Keating, Ed.D.
President, Rowan College of South Jersey
