Fellow New Jerseyans:

On behalf of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, I am pleased to present our 2022 Institutional Profile Report—a means by which to share timely, objective data about our educational and administrative operations.

Returning to primarily in-classroom instruction over the past academic year and joyously celebrating in-person commencement ceremonies again this May, we were proud to award more than 19,000 degrees, offer instruction to nearly 70,000 students, and provide valuable service to the people of New Jersey.

Rutgers is dedicated to our mission of teaching, research, and service to New Jersey. A member of the Association of American Universities since 1989, Rutgers is strengthened by the scholarly excellence of our faculty, the success of our students—many of whom earn international fellowships and scholarships, the award-winning innovations of our staff, and the contributions our more than 500,000 alumni make to New Jersey and the world.

This Institutional Profile Report provides valuable information and reflects our continuing commitment to New Jersey and its citizens.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Holloway

Introduction and Accreditation Status

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

General Background

Chartered in 1766 as Queen's College, Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, is the eighth oldest institution of higher learning in the United States. It has a unique history: from its inception as one of the nation's nine colonial colleges, Rutgers grew to become the land-grant college of New Jersey in 1864, and to assume full university status in 1924. Legislative acts of 1945 and 1956 designated it "The State University of New Jersey." The University of Newark merged with Rutgers in 1946, and the College of South Jersey in Camden joined in 1950. In 2013, most units of the former University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey were integrated into Rutgers. All of the university's property and educational facilities are imparted with a public trust for the higher education of the people of the State.

Today, Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, is a leading national research university and the state of New Jersey's preeminent, comprehensive public institution of higher education. Nearly 70,000 students and close to 23,000 faculty and staff learn, work, and serve the public in locations throughout the state, including:

- Rutgers University-New Brunswick. Rutgers-New Brunswick is where Rutgers began more than 250 years ago. Ranked among the nation's finest research universities, Rutgers' flagship is a member of both the prestigious Association of American Universities (AAU) and the Big Ten Academic Alliance.
- Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences. RBHS is one of the nation's largest academic health centers and is aligned with Rutgers-New Brunswick. RBHS advances medical innovation, provides state-of-the-art patient care, and educates a full complement of healthcare professionals.
- Rutgers University-Newark. Rutgers-Newark is a diverse research university where opportunity meets excellence. It is an anchor institution in New Jersey's largest city and cultural capital.
- Rutgers University-Camden. Rutgers-Camden offers transformative learning experiences in a personalized setting, fosters high-impact research, and engages in solution-oriented service to the city and region around it.

University Mission

As one of the leading comprehensive public research universities in the nation, Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, has the threefold mission of

- providing for the instructional needs of New Jersey's residents through its undergraduate, graduate, and continuing education programs;
- conducting the innovative research that contributes to the medical, environmental, social, and cultural well-being of the state, as well as aiding the economy and the state's businesses and industries; and
- performing public service in support of the needs of the residents of the state and its local, county, and state governments.

Each component of the university's mission reinforces and supports the other two.

Information about the Middle States Commission on Higher Education

The Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE) is an institutional accreditor in the United States and is recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). MSCHE accreditation applies to an institution as a whole rather than the specific programs within an institution. MSCHE does not approve or accredit individual programs. The MSCHE accreditation review cycle is continuous and accreditation does not expire. Each institution is reevaluated and monitored on a regular and consistent basis in accordance with the institution's assigned accreditation review cycle and Commission policy and procedures. An institution maintains its accreditation unless it is voluntarily surrendered or withdrawn by the Commission for cause, after the institution has been afforded due process. The institution's current accreditation phase and accreditation status are displayed on the institution's listing in the Institution Directory and in the Statement of Accreditation Status (SAS).

Enrollment in Remediation Courses, Fall 2021

All newly admitted first-year students will take Rutgers University's placement tests. Transfer students entering Rutgers without an equivalent English writing course or math course will also be required to take placement tests. The placement tests are designed to provide information about students' individual skills in the English language and in mathematics. The test results will be used to place students in the courses and sections appropriate to their level of preparation.

Programs for the Community

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY - CAMDEN

Civic Engagement Programs

Rutgers University–Camden offers programs for the greater community through the Office of Civic Engagement and through partners across campus in a variety of areas, including education, economic development, and law and public policy.

Education

CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Hundreds of children and teens from across southern New Jersey nurture their appreciation of the arts through a variety of innovative education programs developed by the Rutgers–Camden Center for the Arts. These innovative arts education programs are offered in the schools, at Rutgers, or through distance learning. They build skills and abilities within various arts disciplines; foster self-awareness of individual artistic assets; augment knowledge of the arts in historical and cultural context; and much more.
