

COLLEGE BOUND GRANT PROGRAM

Helping students prepare for college since 1986

In 2007, College Bound served 2770 students in 210 public middle and high schools in 16 Abbott districts.

➔ The college enrollment rate was 73% for College Bound students in 2007. From 2004-2006, the average college enrollment rate for College Bound students was 71%, compared to 37%, the statewide average for low income students.

➔ The 2007 college enrollment rate for African American and Hispanic College Bound students was 73% and 68% respectively.

Outcome Measures (2007)

CB Students

Comparison Groups¹

Outcome Measures (2007)	CB Students	Comparison Groups ¹
Graduation rate of 12 th graders	98%	79% at target high schools
Percentage of 12 th graders taking the SAT	70%	56% at target high schools
Average Verbal SAT score ²	430	393 at target high schools
Average Math SAT score ²	450	405 at target high schools
Average Writing SAT Score	431	388 at target high schools

Data Sources: 06-07 NJ School Report Card, College Board, SURE system, National Student Clearinghouse, and Postsecondary Education OPPORTUNITY (2008).

Notes: ¹Target high schools represent the 22 high schools where College Bound programs specifically recruit students.

²College Bound students' SAT data reflect highest average score; SAT data from College Board based on students' most recent SAT score.

www.state.nj.us/highereducation/grants/college_bound.htm