

THE CLINICAL RESOURCE TEAM PRESENTS:

FALL PREVENTION AWARENESS MONTH

National Fall Prevention Awareness Day is September 22, 2026

In-Person Trainings for Stakeholders

Tuesday, September 15, 2026 | 10:00 am -12:00 pm

5 Commerce Way, Hamilton, NJ 08691, in Conference Room 199 A & B

Registration Link: Fall Prevention In-Person Workshop

The in-person training will also include an interactive focus group, allowing stakeholders to share perspectives and discuss fall prevention across different settings.

Fall Prevention

This presentation provides an overview of fall prevention for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD). Participants will learn to identify common fall risk factors, recognize environmental hazards, understand the role of medications and adaptive equipment in fall prevention, and review appropriate documentation and response procedures following a fall. The presentation also highlights practical, evidence-informed strategies to promote safety and help reduce the risk of preventable falls. This presentation will be facilitated by the Clinical Resource Team: Nursing Support Unit.
