§ 10:139-1.1 Division of Disability Services' mission

The Division of Disability Services (DDS) provides a single point of entry for people seeking disability related information in New Jersey. DDS works to streamline access to services and information that promote and enhance independent living for individuals with disabilities by facilitating coordination and cooperation among local, county, and State government agencies. DDS promotes maximum independence, equity, inclusion, and works to ensure the full participation of people with disabilities within all aspects of community life including health, education, employment, recreation, and social engagement.
