Job Description

The Department of Labor and Workforce Development (DOL) provides many benefits to employees to acknowledge and value their contribution. Statewide benefits include health insurance, pension, Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA)/Health Savings Accounts (HSA), life insurance, deferred compensation and more. The DOL also provides tuition reimbursement (after nine months of employment), a higher education program, the Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) and Temporary Expanded PSLF (TEPSLF) Programs, and employee training. The DOL also provides options for participation in the Telework, Alternate Workweek or Flextime Programs pursuant to the Department’s policy.

Under the general supervision of an Assistant Chief or other supervisory official in the Division of Wage and Hour Compliance, Department of Labor and Workforce Development, supervises field staff in a given geographic area responsible for investigating claims involving the improper payment of wages, inadequate conditions of employment, or other alleged violations to ensure compliance with the various labor laws, rules and regulations under the jurisdictions of the Division of Wage and Hour Compliance; may independently conduct the more complex and/or sensitive investigations; negotiates and authorizes settlements regarding assessed wages, fees, penalties, or other sanctions; may be assigned to supervise the Agricultural Compliance Section which enforces Child Labor, Wage Payment and Wage and Hour laws in agricultural-related industries; prepares and signs official performance evaluations for subordinate staff; does other related duties as required.

NOTE: Familiarity with NJ Prevailing Wage Law, Contractor Registration Act, and applicable regulations. Should have experience in dealing with both worker and employer stakeholders in the construction and/or related industries.

Civil Service Commission Requirements (Education/Experience/Licenses)

Please note that the Promotional Announcement PS9931N will be certified, and will take precedence over provisional appointments, however, there may be insufficient interest. Open to current state career service employees who are currently permanent in any competitive title and who meet the Open Competitive Requirements listed below:

EDUCATION: Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor's degree.

EXPERIENCE: Three (3) years of professional experience in a public or private agency identifying and investigating violations in a field of specific regulatory conditions, interpreting, and applying these regulations and making recommendations based on findings.

NOTE: Applicants who do not possess the required degree may substitute additional experience as indicated above on a year for year basis.

NOTE: A Master's degree in Public Business or Personnel Administration may be substituted for one (1) year of non-supervisory experience.

NOTE: Applicants who do not possess the required education may substitute additional experience as indicated above on a year for year basis with thirty (30) semester hour credits being equal to one (1) year of non-supervisory experience.

RESUME NOTE: Eligibility determinations will be based only upon information presented on the resume along with other supporting documents. Applicants who possess a degree from a college or university outside the United States must provide an evaluation of the transcripts from a recognized evaluation service at the time of submission. Failure to do so may result in your ineligibility.

LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess a driver's license valid in New Jersey only if the operation of a vehicle, rather than employee mobility, is necessary to perform the essential duties of the position.

TO APPLY for this Position

If you qualify and would like to be considered, submit a letter of interest and your resume (including daytime phone number and email address) to the person and email address listed below. You must submit your response by the closing date shown above and include the Posting number.
