Job Description

The Department of Labor and Workforce Development (DOL) provides many benefits to employees to acknowledge and value their contribution. Statewide benefits include health insurance, pension, Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA)/Health Savings Accounts (HSA), life insurance, deferred compensation and more. The DOL also provides tuition reimbursement (after nine months of employment), a higher education program, the Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) and Temporary Expanded PSLF (TEPSLF) Programs, and employee training. The DOL also provides options for participation in the Telework, Alternate Workweek or Flextime Programs pursuant to the Department’s policy. Additionally, DOL embraces diversity, equity and inclusion.

Under the direction of a supervisory official in the Department of Labor, supervises a major program or project in the collection/generation, analysis, or dissemination of labor market, economic, demographic, or labor-related data; or supervises a professional labor market information program unit; does other related duties as required.

Specifically, the individual that fills this position will manage and lead the Unit that conducts the Annual Survey of Injuries and Illnesses (SOII) in partnership with the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. This important survey measures work-related injuries and illnesses occurring in NJ's workplaces. The position will include among other things: supervising and managing staff, reviewing appropriate sample frames, reviewing questionnaires, monitoring survey responses, coding complex responses, and determining methods of tabulation and producing written analyses.

Civil Service Commission Requirements (Education/Experience/Licenses)

Open to employees of the State of New Jersey who are currently permanent in any competitive title and who meet the requirements below:

EDUCATION: Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor's degree including or supplemented by fifteen (15) semester hour credits in economics, mathematics, or statistics, at least three (3) semester hour credits of which shall have been in statistics.

EXPERIENCE: Four (4) years of experience in the collection, analysis and dissemination of labor market, economic, demographic, occupational, actuarial or labor-related program data or, in the collection, review and evaluation of information from individuals, employers and other sources to determine eligibility for grants, loans, insurance, credit, entitlements to cash awards, financial or other services or benefits, tax liability and/or workforce or other opportunities for individuals, employers or public or private agencies, one (1) year of which shall have been in a supervisory capacity.

NOTE: Applicants who do not possess a Bachelor's degree may substitute experience as indicated above on a year-for-year basis. No substitution will be allowed for the specialized education credits.

NOTE: A Master's degree in statistics, mathematics, economics, or public/business administration may be substituted for one (1) year of work experience.
RESUME NOTE: Eligibility determinations will be based only upon information presented on the resume along with other supporting documents. Applicants who possess a degree from a college or university outside the United States must provide an evaluation of the transcripts from a recognized evaluation service at the time of submission. Failure to do so may result in your ineligibility.

LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess a driver's license valid in New Jersey only if the operation of a vehicle, rather than employee mobility, is necessary to perform the essential duties of the position.
