MEMORANDUM

August 25, 2011

To: All Judges and Attorneys
From: Peter J. Calderone, Director and Chief Judge
Subject: Accidental Disability Orders

In consultation with other agencies, the following is the recommended language to be included in Orders where the petitioner is receiving an accidental disability pension and has accepted the continuing medical treatment option:

Petitioner has been awarded and accepted an accidental disability pension effective (date) . To resolve the workers' compensation case, petitioner and respondent have agreed to provide petitioner with reasonable and necessary medical treatment for injuries related to the (date) accident. This Order for continuing medical benefits shall not be subject to the two year statute of limitations and such medical benefits shall continue for the life of the petitioner or until further order of this court.

Please contact me if you have any questions on this matter.
