

Your employer is subject to the New Jersey Unemployment & Temporary Disability Benefits Laws

Unemployment Insurance

Benefits are payable to workers who lose their jobs or who are working less than full time because of a lack of full-time work and who meet the eligibility requirements of the law.

If you become totally or partially unemployed, file a claim for unemployment insurance benefits as soon as possible. The easiest, quickest way is to file online at nj.gov/labor/ui. You can also file a claim over the phone by contacting our Reemployment Call Centers at one of these numbers listed below. Note, if you were a maritime employee in the last 18 months or live outside of the United States, you must file your claim over the phone. Be prepared to have information about yourself, your employer and your work history available when filing your claim.

Disability Insurance

Benefits are payable to New Jersey workers who suffer a non-work-related illness, injury, or other medical condition that prevents them from working. Temporary disability insurance coverage includes new and expecting mothers during their final weeks of pregnancy and recovery. If you become disabled and wish to apply for disability benefits, start by asking whether your employer participates in the state disability insurance plan or has a private insurance plan.

New Jersey State Disability Insurance Plan* (“state plan”)

If you are covered under the state insurance plan, you may apply for disability benefits (or download a paper application – Form DS-1) online at myleavebenefits.nj.gov. Applying online is faster.

Submit the completed paper application by fax to: 609-984-4138

or mail to: Division of Temporary Disability Insurance
PO Box 387
Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0387

For more information, visit myleavebenefits.nj.gov or call 609-292-7060.

Private Disability Insurance Plan (“private plan”)

New Jersey employers have the option of providing coverage to their employees through an approved private plan instead of the state plan. If you are covered under a private plan, your employer’s insurance carrier is responsible for processing and paying benefits on your disability claim. If you become disabled, ask your employer for the form you need to claim benefits under the private plan.

Who pays for Unemployment & Temporary Disability Programs?

These programs are paid for by payroll taxes paid by employers and employees. Your employer is authorized to deduct worker contributions (tax) from your wages. The deductions must be noted on your pay envelope, paycheck, or on some other form of notice. The amount of wages that are taxable changes from year to year.

The deduction may be allocated at varying rates to the Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund, the Temporary Disability Insurance Fund and the Workforce Development/Supplemental Workforce Funds. If an approved private plan is non-contributory, no contributions can be deducted from workers’ wages for disability insurance.

Your employer’s contributions are based in part on their employment experience.
