

5 STEP GUIDE TO GET YOUR 1099-G

YOU WILL NEED A COPY OF YOUR FORM 1099-G TO FILE YOUR FEDERAL INCOME TAXES

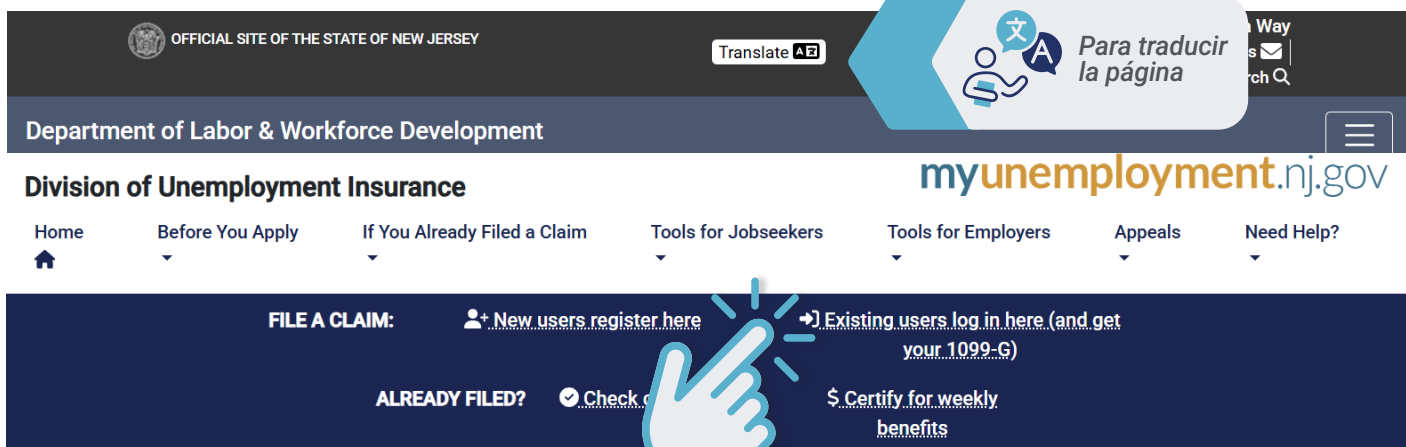

Although the state of New Jersey does not tax Unemployment Insurance benefits, they are considered income and are subject to federal income taxes. The amount of benefits you receive in a given calendar year is reported to you on a Form 1099-G.

PREPARE

- Your email address and the password you created when applying for benefits
  - » If you do not know your email address and/or password, see step 2 for instructions.

1. VISIT THE WEBSITE

Go to myunemployment.nj.gov and click “Existing users log in here.”

2. LOG IN

ENTER YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS AND PASSWORD, THEN CLICK “LOG IN.”

If you forget your email address or password, select the hyperlink below the “Log In” button to retrieve your account information.

5. VIEW YOUR TAX FORMS

You will only see records for years you have a 1099-G tax form available for the current tax year and previous 4 years.

You can click on the record to display as a PDF. You can choose to print, download or email a PDF copy of the form selected using your internet browser's PDF viewing tool.

If you need to request an older tax form, contact the Unemployment Call Center at 732-761-2020.

Additional information is available in the 1099 FAQs at nj.gov/labor/1099FAQs.

Tax forms

The 1099-G (Statement for Recipients of Certain Government Payments) reports the total taxable unemployment payments you received in a tax year starting with the first payment.

You don't need to send these forms to the IRS, they're submitted by NJ UI each tax season. Tax forms for the most recent year will be available by Jan 31.
