4. Are you keeping records documenting Earned Sick Leave?

Records must be kept for 5 years including hours worked by each employee and earned sick leave that has been accrued/advanced, used, paid, and carried over.

YES	NO

5. Have you established a policy to address unused Earned Sick Leave?

An employee may carry over up to 40 hours of unused earned sick leave to the next year. However, you are required only to let an employee use up to 40 hours of sick leave per year. OR you can choose to pay an employee for unused earned sick leave hours at the end of the year.

YES	NO

6. Have you developed and distributed to your employees an Earned Sick Leave policy?

An employer’s Earned Sick Leave policy should cover the following topics:

- If employees will accrue earned sick time OR receive 40 hours of earned sick leave in advance.
- Establish a benefit year for each employee.
- How employees will be paid for the earned sick leave they use.
- The increments in which employees may use earned sick leave hours.
- Permitted usage of accrued earned sick leave hours.
- Advanced notice for planned and unplanned needs to use earned sick leave. (Note: Advanced notice is not required for unplanned needs like an illness but can be required for planned needs like an appointment).
- What documentation employees need to provide related to using earned sick leave. (Note: Documentation is not required unless sick leave is used for more than 2 consecutive workdays).
- Carry-over or pay-out of unused earned sick leave hours at the end of the benefit year.
- That employee health information and data in the employer’s possession will be held confidential.
