Division of Workers' Compensation
PO Box 381, Trenton, NJ 08625-0381

Thank you for your interest in the Division of Workers' Compensation's Internet database, COURTS on-line. Access to COURTS on-line is available to law firms, insurance carriers, Self Insurers, court reporting agencies and physicians through a unique password/login ID. In addition to providing information on all your company's cases, COURTS on-line gives law firms the option to electronically file and receive legal pleadings and insurance carriers the ability to electronically receive legal documents and to electronically forward those documents to their counsel for response.

The minimum technical requirements for participation in COURTS on-line are the following:

- Subscriber must have a unique e-mail address belonging solely to him/her;
- Subscriber must routinely check his/her e-mail to receive important notices from the Division. Please note that e-mail filters used by some Internet Service Providers may classify messages from the COURTS on-line staff as Bulk Mail or Junk Mail, while others may completely prevent the delivery of our messages to you. To ensure that messages are delivered correctly to your Inbox, please add the following domain names to your address book: "dol.nj.gov" and "oit.nj.gov";
- The Internet browser on the subscriber's computer must be either Microsoft Internet Explorer (version 7 or higher) or Firefox (latest version);
- Adobe Acrobat Reader (the latest version) must be installed if subscriber is interested in e-filing
- Subscriber must be able to download files through the Internet and view pop-up windows

If your firm/company is brand new to the COURTS on-line program, we will first need for your company to designate a contact person, an individual with a managerial title. This can be done by completing application #1. It will be the contact person's responsibility to approve the list of users for your company, advise us on the electronic filing access level for every subscriber, notify us whenever there is a change to this list and receive notices from the Division regarding technology issues. The individual subscriber application (application #2) needs to be completed and signed by each applicant as well as the contact person. Please note that if the contact person wishes to receive their own logon credentials, he or she will also have to complete a subscriber application (application #2).

You can mail or fax the completed applications to the Division of Workers' Compensation at the address noted above, attn: WC Technical Support Unit, fax (609) 292-3758. If you have any questions, you can e-mail us at courts@dol.nj.gov or call us at (609) 777-4921. Within 2 weeks after you submit your applications to the Division, each applicant will be mailed a pin number and instructions on how to create their online profile, userID and password. Once the subscriber has created their profile successfully, they will then be able to log on to COURTS on-line.

We look forward to hearing from you and thank you for your continued support of the COURTS on-line program.

NJ Division of Workers' Compensation - COURTS on-line program
Designation of a Contact Person - Application 1

Access to COURTS on-line is only available to authorized employees of law firms/insurance carriers/self insurers registered with the Division. Please keep in mind that the minimum requirements for participation in this program are the following: each individual applicant must have a unique e-mail address belonging solely to that applicant; the Internet browser on the participant's computer must be either Microsoft Internet Explorer (version 7) or Firefox (latest version); Adobe Acrobat Reader software (the latest version) for viewing and downloading documents; the applicant must be designated as an authorized participant by their employer.

In order for us to process the applications filed by employees of your company/firm, we will need to know the identity of a key contact person in your company.

- The individual designated should be an officer of the company, a partner or have a managerial title.
- If your firm/company has multiple locations, the designated contact person must be located at the address that is registered with the Division of Worker's Compensation.

It will be the contact person's responsibility to approve the list of users for your firm/company, advise us of their electronic filing status, notify us whenever there is a change to this list and receive notices from the Division regarding COURTS on-line issues. Please note that as long as one subscriber from your company is designated as an electronic filer, your company will be considered an "Electronic Filing" company and will receive notices of electronically filed legal pleadings solely through the COURTS on-line system.

34:15-128. Limited right to inspect or copy records.

a. Notwithstanding any other provision of the chapter to which this act is a supplement [34:15-1 et seq.] or of any other law, no records maintained by the Division of Workers' Compensation or the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau shall be disclosed to any person who seeks disclosure of the records for the purpose of selling or furnishing for a consideration to others information from those records or reports or abstracts of workers' compensation records or work-injury records pertaining to any claimant. No information shall be disclosed from those records to any person not in the division, unless:

(1) The information is provided in a manner which makes it impossible to identify any claimant;

(2) The records are opened for the exclusive purpose of permitting a claimant, employer, insurance carrier or authorized agent of the claimant, employer or insurance carrier to conduct an investigation by or on behalf of the claimant, employer or insurance carrier in connection with any pending workers' compensation case to which the claimant, employer or insurance carrier is a party, and the party seeking access to the records certifies to the division that the information from the records will be used only for purposes directly related to the case;

(3) The records are opened for the exclusive purpose of permitting a third party directly involved in a workers' compensation case, including any workers' compensation lienholders, or an authorized agent of the third party, to conduct an investigation by or on behalf of the third party in connection with the case, and the party seeking access to the records certifies to the division that the information from the records will be used only for purposes directly related to the case;

(4) The records are subpoenaed by the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance pursuant to section 10 of P.L. 1983, c. 320 (C. 17:33A-10) or by a court of competent jurisdiction in a civil or criminal proceeding;

(5) The division provides the information to another governmental agency pursuant to law, for a duly recognized purpose of that agency, which agency shall not subsequently disclose any of the information to any person, organization, entity or governmental agency not entitled to receive the information from the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau or the Division of Workers' Compensation pursuant to the workers' compensation law, R.S. 34:15-1 et seq.; or

(6) The information is information about the claimant requested by the claimant, in which case the division shall disclose the information and the claimant shall not be charged fees in excess of the cost of providing copies of the information.

b. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no information from records maintained by the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau pertaining to any work injury or illness or workers' compensation claim shall be disclosed to any business or other member of the public unless the bureau discloses the information in a manner which makes it impossible to identify the claimant.

c. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no information provided by the Division to any other governmental agency pursuant to subsection a. of this section shall be disclosed by the agency to any business or other member of the public unless the information is disclosed to the business or other member of the public in a manner which makes it impossible to identify the claimant.

d. Notwithstanding the restrictions on disclosure set forth under subsections a. through c. of this section, a claimant may authorize the release of records of the claimant to a specific person not otherwise authorized to receive the records, by submitting written authorization for the release to the division specifically directing the division to release workers' compensation records to that person. However, no such authorization directing disclosure of records to a prospective employer shall be valid, nor shall an authorization permitting disclosure of records in connection with assessing fitness or capability for employment be valid, and no disclosure of records shall be made with respect thereto, unless requested pursuant to and consistent with the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990," 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq. and the "Law Against Discrimination," P.L. 1945, c. 169 (C. 10:5-1 et seq.). It shall be unlawful for any person to consider for the purpose of assessing eligibility for a benefit, or as the basis for an employment-related action, an individual's failure to provide authorization under this subsection.
