The agency special adoption and concurrent proposal follows:

Summary

The Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control (Division) is amending the fee provisions for the filing of applications to the Division and the issuance by the Division of certain permits relating to the sale and purchase of alcoholic beverages. These changes are in response to recent legislation (P.L. 2003, c. 117) which increases the permissible range of fees and sets other fees. The amendments are required to keep the Division’s regulations in sync with the revisions to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, N.J.S.A. 33:1-1, et seq. contained in this legislation.
The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-1.9 provides that a licensee will be subject to disciplinary action or the denial of current and future applications if all or a portion of the requisite fee is not paid to the Director or other issuing authority for an application or permit. Subsection (e) of this rule provides that any applicant for a license or license renewal who has submitted the license fee for an application for a license issued or transferred on or after July 1, 2003, or renewed for a license term commencing on or after July 1, 2003, shall submit immediately any outstanding portion of the total license fee as increased by P.L. 2003, c. 117. If the increased portion of the license fee has not been paid in full by October 1, 2003, the applicant shall be deemed to be in violation of N.J.S.A. 33:1-27 and the director may issue an ex parte order revoking the license or indefinitely suspending it until payment. This provision codifies the intent of P.L. 2003, c. 117, which provides that if a license fee is not fully paid by the designated deadline for payment, the applicant for the license shall be deemed to be in violation of N.J.S.A. 33:1-27 which mandates the payment of license fees. The legislation provides a specific grace period for the 2003-2004 license term which ends on October 1, 2003 for the payment of the increased fees. The legislation further provides that after the expiration of the designated deadline for payment, the Director “may issue an ex parte order revoking the license or indefinitely suspending same until payment.” This authority is in addition to the existing penalty for unpaid checks.
submitted to the Director or issuing authority and is limited to the payment of the increased fees as provided in P.L. 2003, c. 117.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-2.1 provides that the non-refundable filing fee, payable to the Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control, to be submitted with applications for and renewals of alcoholic beverage licenses shall increase from $100.00 to $200.00. This increase mirrors the increase contained in the recent budget legislation.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-5.1 provides that the fee accompanying an application for a social affair permit filed by a religious, civic, educational or veteran’s organization shall increase from $50.00 to $100.00 and the fee accompanying an application for a social affair permit filed by another qualifying organization shall increase from $75.00 to $125.00. This increase mirrors the increase contained in the recent budget legislation.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-5.2 provides that the fee which must accompany an application for a special concessionaire permit shall be set at $2000.00. Currently, the regulation provides that the fee for the permit shall be fixed by the Director and it has been set by Division policy at $1000.00. The new fee set in the regulation is in line with the new parameters for fees as contained in the recent budget legislation.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-5.3 provides that the fee which must accompany an application for a special permit for a golf facility shall be set at $2000.00. Currently, the regulation provides that the fee for the permit shall be $1000.00. The new fee set in the regulation is in line with the new parameters for fees as contained in the recent budget legislation.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-5.4 provides that the range of fees which must accompany an application for a special permit for the sale or purchase of alcoholic beverages shall be not less than $10.00 nor more than $2000.00. Currently, the regulation provides that the range of fees shall be not less than $5.00 nor more than $1000.00. The actual fee for each permit issued under this section shall be fixed by the Director within the range set by the amendment. New subsection (e) sets out the current Special Permits issued by the Director and the required fees for each of the permits. These permits have been issued in the past pursuant to Division policy. This new subsection sets out a list of these Special Permits and their new fees are within the new parameters for fees as contained in the recent budget legislation.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-5.5 provides that the range of fees which must accompany an application for a temporary miscellaneous contingency permit for the sale or purchase of alcoholic beverages shall be not less than $10.00 nor more than $2000.00. Currently, the regulation provides that the range of fees shall be not less than $5.00 nor more than $1000.00. The actual fee for each permit issued under this section shall be fixed by the Director within the range set by the amendment. The new range of fees set in the amendment mirrors the new parameters for fees as contained in the recent budget legislation.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-7.11 provides that the fee which must accompany an application for transfer of a retail license shall be set at $200.00. Currently, the regulation provides that the fee for the application shall be $100.00. The new fee set in the regulation is in line with the new parameters for fees as contained in the recent budget legislation.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-14.2 provides that the fee for an individual permit for minor’s employment shall be set at $15.00. Currently, the regulation provides that the fee for the permit shall be $10.00. The new fee set in the regulation is in line with the new parameters for fees as contained in the recent budget legislation.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-7.14.4 provides that the fee for a blanket employment permit shall not exceed $1000.00 per year. Currently, the regulation provides that the fee for the permit shall not exceed $500.00 per year. The new fee set in the regulation is in line with the new parameters for fees as contained in the recent budget legislation.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-14.7 provides that the fee which must accompany an application for a rehabilitation employment permit shall be set at $150.00 per year. Currently, the regulation provides that the fee for the application shall be $100.00 per year. A 60-day comment period is provided for this notice of proposal and, therefore, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:30-3.3(a)5, the proposal is not subject to the provisions of N.J.A.C. 1:30-3.1 and 3.2 governing rulemaking calendars. Additionally, these amendments are submitted pursuant to P.L.2003, c. 117 to effectuate that legislation’s provisions. The legislation provides that the regulations promulgated to effectuate its provisions shall be immediately effective for a period not to exceed six months upon their filing with the Office of Administrative Law and thereafter may be amended, adopted or readopted in accordance with the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A.
Social Impact

The amendments increasing application or permit fees with regard to the sale or purchase of alcoholic beverages impact New Jersey’s taxpayers because increased fees will reduce the need for higher taxes to adequately support the administration of State government, including the legislatively mandated activities of the Division. The Division is responsible for enforcing the legislative intent expressed in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, N.J.S.A. 33:1-1 et seq., to strictly regulate alcoholic beverages to protect the health, safety and welfare of the people of this State.

The amendments to increase fees may impact the alcoholic beverage industry because the amendments will increase the costs associated with the sale and purchase of alcoholic beverages. The larger fees may also result in higher costs for the purchase of alcoholic beverages if the alcoholic beverage industry passes the costs of the increased fees on to consumers.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-1.9 may also impact the alcoholic beverage industry. This amendment provides that if all or a portion of the requisite fee is not paid to the Director or other issuing authority for an application or permit, a licensee will be subject to disciplinary action, including revoking the license/permit or indefinitely suspending it until payment, or the denial of current and future applications. The disciplinary action shall be ex parte, that is, upon confirmation of the failure of a licensee to pay the entire requisite fee by the required date, the Director can immediately take disciplinary action without prior notice. The budget legislation provides a specific payment grace period for the 2003-2004 license term which ends on October 1, 2003, for the payment of the increased fees. Thus, if the Division does not receive payment by October 1, 2003 for the entire license/permit fee, disciplinary action will result against the applicant for the license or permit.

Fees for alcoholic beverage applications and permits have not been increased since approximately 1994. The administration of State government, including the enforcement of the alcoholic beverage control laws, assists in preserving the legislatively mandated three-tier system for the benefit of the people of this State and the alcoholic beverage industry.

Economic Impact

The amendments to increase application or permit fees with regard to the sale or purchase of alcoholic beverages will have an economic impact on New Jersey’s taxpayers because these increased fees will reduce the need for higher taxes to adequately support the administration of State government, including the legislatively mandated activities of the Division to enforce the alcoholic beverage laws.

The amendments to increase fees may economically impact the alcoholic beverage industry because the amendments will increase the costs associated with the sale and purchase of alcoholic beverages. The larger fees may also result in higher costs for the purchase of alcoholic beverages if the alcoholic beverage industry passes the costs of the increased fees on to consumers.

The amendment to N.J.A.C. 13:2-1.9 may have an economic impact on the alcoholic beverage industry. This amendment provides that if all or a portion of the requisite fee is not paid to the Director or other issuing authority for an application or permit, a licensee will be subject to disciplinary action, including revoking the license/permit or indefinitely suspending it until payment, or the denial of current and future applications. The disciplinary action shall be ex parte, that is, upon confirmation of the failure of a licensee to pay the entire requisite fee by the required date, the Director can immediately take disciplinary action without prior notice. The budget legislation provides a specific payment grace period for the 2003-2004 license term which ends on October 1, 2003, for the payment of the increased fees. Thus, if the Division does not receive payment from the applicant for a license or permit by October 1, 2003 for the entire fee, disciplinary action will result.
Fees for alcoholic beverage applications and permits have not been increased since approximately 1994. The new fees contained in these proposed amendments in more in line with current economic conditions both at the Division and in the State.

Jobs Impact

The amendments are not expected to have any job impact since the amendments will increase already existing fees for applications and permits for the sale and purchase of alcoholic beverages. There are no changes in procedural requirements and no greater permitting restrictions or requirements that would result in the loss or gain of jobs in the alcoholic beverage industry.

Federal Standards Statement

A Federal standards analysis is not required since the amendments are dictated and in accordance with N.J.S.A. 33:1-1, et seq. There are no federal requirements or standards applicable to this rulemaking.

Agriculture Industry Impact

The amendments will have no impact on the agriculture industry in this State.
Regulatory Flexibility Analysis

Pursuant to the New Jersey Regulatory Flexibility Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-16, et seq., a “small business” means any business resident in this State that employs fewer than 100 full-time employees; is independently owned and operated; and is not dominant in its field. A percentage of the retailers in New Jersey’s alcoholic beverage industry could be considered "small businesses" within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act. Compliance with the amendments will not result in permit or license applicants having to obtain professional services. The amendments will not impose additional reporting or recordkeeping requirements on small businesses, but do impose compliance requirements in the form of fees for licenses and permits and provide that an applicant will be subject to disciplinary action, including revoking a license/permit or an indefinite suspension, if payment in full is not made by October 1, 2003. The fees are based upon the types of permits sought, therefore, the fee increases will generally have the same impact on a small business as on any other business. The fees applicable to retailers and wholesalers, some of which are graduated depending on business size or volume, reflected in this proposal are fixed by the legislature. The fees fixed by the Director are based on the parameters set out in N.J.S.A. 33:1-17 as increased by the budget legislation. Because these permits are intended to uniformly regulate certain activities relating to the provision and sale of alcohol in the marketplace, no lesser requirements for small businesses are provided. A fee scheme which would set graduated fees for the large number of miscellaneous permits covered by N.J.S.A.
33:1-74 would be unreasonably burdensome for the Division to administrate due to the budgetary and personnel constraints of the agency. Thus, these amendments impose fees and compliance requirements set by the Director that are consistent for all licensees regardless of size.

Smart Growth Impact

The Division does not believe that the amendments will have any impact upon the achievement of smart growth or the implementation of the State Development and Redevelopment Plan.
