

-Special Announcement-
CPS Conference Scholarships available now.

To attend the 2008 NHTSA Region 2
Child Passenger Safety Technical Conference to be held in Atlantic City N.J. September 24th – 26th

A $125 (One Hundred Twenty Five Dollars) scholarship is available, to cover registration fees, for those who wish to attend the 2008 Child Passenger Safety Conference. This funding can be obtained by any Child Passenger Safety Technician, or unit Supervisor, who is currently certified by the national certifying body, and working in New Jersey. You must be actively involved in CPS activities to be eligible.

In order to apply, go to the DHTS website at www.njsaferoads.com which takes you to (<http://www.nj.gov/oag/hts/index.html>). Under HTS News, click on “Child Passenger Safety Conference”, then click on “New Jersey Technicians”. Print the registration form and fill in your information on page 2. Send the completed form to the scholarship contact for your county as listed below. Your completed application must be received no later than Friday August 1st 2008.

Registration forms received after the deadline will be returned to sender.
