ADDITIONAL JANUARY DEIB OBSERVANCES

National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month

National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month, observed in January, aims to raise awareness about the grave issues of modern slavery and human trafficking. The month seeks to educate the public about the prevalence of these crimes, the tactics used by traffickers, and the impact on victims.

National Blood Donor Month

National Blood Donor Month, observed in January, is dedicated to recognizing the critical role of blood donors in saving lives and maintaining a stable blood supply. The month aims to encourage individuals to donate blood, highlighting the constant need for blood donations to support medical treatments and emergencies.

National Poverty in America Awareness Month

National Poverty in America Awareness Month, observed in January, focuses on increasing awareness and understanding of the challenges faced by individuals and communities living in poverty within the United States. The month seeks to shed light on the root causes of poverty, such as systemic issues and economic disparities, and advocates for social and policy changes to address these issues.
