Print Story: NJANG’s KC-135, F-16 wings exercise “Jersey ACEs”

The New Jersey Air National Guard’s 108th Wing and 177th Fighter Wing conducted their first Agile Combat Employment (ACE) exercise between Naval Air Station Key West, Fla., and Muñiz Air National Guard Base, Puerto Rico, Jan. 21-23. The two Wings’ Airmen recently returned from counterinsurgency deployments, so the exercise was designed to shift their focus to near-peer threats and the Air Force’s new “ACE” scheme of maneuver.
