"Mission: See Your Soldier" will be held in New Jersey

The companies of Glowpoint, MSpace, and TANDBERG are opening their videoconferencing networks to military families - nationwide – this holiday season so that they can communicate face-to-face with their loved ones deployed to Iraq this holiday season on Thursday, Dec. 13, 8 a.m.-6 p.m. EST.

Military families in New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Texas, Georgia, Minnesota, and California can arrange for hosted videoconferencing calls to Freedom Call Centers in Iraq. The New Jersey location is Glowpoint, 225 Long Avenue, Hillside. There is also a location in New York at: The Digital Sandbox, 55 Broad Street, Fourth Floor, New York, NY.

Working in partnership with the Freedom Calls Foundation, the host companies will connect families and military personnel stationed in Iraq for 30-minute videoconferences at one of the following five military installations on the day of the event:

- ❖ Camp Taji
- ❖ Al Asad Air Base
- ❖ Camp Fallujah
- ❖ Camp Victory (Baghdad)
- ❖ Camp Taqaddum

Please call Christopher Welch at 866-456-9764 extension 2002 or at cwelch@glowpoint.com to request a videoconferencing session - and for additional information - for Thursday, December 13, 2007. You may also go to www.glowpoint.com and click on the Freedom Calls icon to make a request. The deadline for all requests is 5 PM (EST) on Friday, December 7.

Country music icon and military supporter Charlie Daniels will also take part in the "Mission: See Your Soldier" project by making video calls to the troops stationed in Iraq. Daniels traveled abroad in 2005 and 2006, visiting Iraq and Kuwait to perform for U.S. troops as part of the Stars for Stripes tour. During the 2006 tour, The CDB performed at some of the camps that will participate in these videoconference calls.

108th holding holiday party on Dec. 9

From the desk of 1st Lt. April Kelly, 108th ARW PAO

On Sunday, Dec. 9, the 108th Air Refueling Wing will be hosting a Commander's Call to include a Holiday Party for unit members and their families. The 108th will sponsor Operation Youth Deployment where family members will be able to take part in a simulated deployment.

Military Officers Association honors 177th Airman, Officer of the Year

The Military Officers Association of America's Southern New Jersey Chapter has announced the recipients of its Outstanding Company Grade Officer and Airman of the Year awards for 2007. ### "Wreaths Across America" coming to Doyle cemetery

Starting in 1992, Morrill and Karen Worcester (owners of the Worcester Wreath Company of Harrington, Maine) began voluntarily donating and shipping truckloads of holiday wreaths to Arlington National Cemetery. Through their efforts, some 5,000 wreaths were placed, last year, on the graves of the honored dead who are entombed at the historic venue.

Now known as "Wreaths Across America," the initiative seeks to involve every national and state veteran's cemetery in the nation in honoring our deceased veterans, and their families, during the holiday season.

The Brig. Gen. William C. Doyle Veterans Memorial Cemetery, located at 350 Provinceline Road, North Hanover Township, will participate for the second straight year. On Saturday, Dec. 15, at noon, there will be a brief ceremony at the Memorial Walkway at the Doyle Cemetery. This ceremony will be held in concert with 229 other veteran cemeteries across the nation.

During the ceremony, representatives of the New Jersey Wing of the Civil Air Patrol will join with members of the cemetery's Joint Honor Guard to present wreaths honoring each branch of our armed services. All members of the New Jersey Army and Air National Guard, active duty military and the general public are invited to attend.

State Employees' Toy Drive looking for toys, gifts

The New Jersey State Employees Toy Drive will start on Nov. 26, and will run through Dec. 17. The toys and gifts will be distributed to children under the supervision of the Department of Children and Families, Division of Youth and Family Services. Gifts are needed for all age groups, the greatest need each year is for children ages 10-17 years old. Gifts should be new and unwrapped. A suggested list is provided for age appropriate gifts.

Toys can be dropped off at the drop off boxes that were used for the annual coat drive located in various locations. For Central Office the drop off box is located in the central lobby.

If you have any questions, contact Paul Serdiuk, coordinator at 609-530-6878. He can supply you with gift suggestion lists for the children.

MRSA seminar to be given by NJ Dept. of Health at Lawrenceville

"Let's Talk About MRSA" - Media reports in the fall of 2007 raised public awareness of skin infections that were resistant to anti-biotic caused by MRSA (Methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus). What exactly is MRSA? Who is at risk? How is it treated? What can you do to protect yourself? These questions and more will be answered in this timely seminar.

A representative from the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services will be in Conference Room A, Central Office, on Friday, Dec. 20, 10-11 a.m., to give a

FRG volunteers: track your time

From the desk of retired Command Sgt. Maj. Mike Hughes, Family Assistance Specialist

Here is a friendly reminder to all Family Readiness Group volunteers. First of all we would like to thank each and every one of you personally for your time and dedication to our troops and their families. If you have not already done so we would appreciate it if you would take a few minutes each day, week or month to go into the Volunteer Tracking System on guardfamily.org and insert the precious time that you have committed to making our Family Program the best! This is a way for the Family Program and the senior leadership to see who is helping out in their Guard communities and to award those who go the extra mile.

ReserveAid gives support to families of deployed service members

From the desk of retired Command Sgt. Maj. Mike Hughes, Family Assistance Specialist

Reserve Aid is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization committed to providing financial support to the families of Reserve Service Members called to active duty in all five branches of the Armed Forces. Reserve Aid makes unrestricted, need based grants to military families who have a Reserve service member on full-time deployment to a combat zone or homeland security position. Their goal is to alleviate the emotional and financial burdens placed on the men and women called to serve our country by supporting their families at home. For additional information and application procedures go to: <http://www.reserveaid.org>

Vietnam Vets Memorial Foundation holds holiday lighting ceremony

From the desk of Sibley Smith, Director of Education, Vietnam Era Educational Center

On Saturday, Dec. 1, the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Foundation, with assistance from the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs, held its annual Holiday Lighting ceremony at the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial in Holmdel.

More than 200 people attended the commemorative event, designed to not only kick-off the holiday season, but to remember the men and women who cannot be with us to celebrate the holidays because they were killed in action or became missing in action during all American wars, past and present. The event was held at the Memorial's gateway near the flags of the United States and the State of New Jersey. Just beyond, down a short walkway, is the circular, black granite wall bearing the names of 1,560 New Jerseyans whose lives were lost in the Vietnam War.

The ceremony began with welcome address, posting of the colors and a Junior Girl Scout trout leading the Pledge of Allegiance.

Sid Lichter, the State Commander of Jewish War Veterans of America, assisted by Ellen Rosen, State President of Jewish War Veterans of America, Ladies Auxilliary, gave a reading about the Hanukkah Celebration. Children of the Jewish War Veterans of America then led the lighting of the Menorah in celebration of Hanukkah, the Festival of Lights.

Willie Mitchell, of Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 779, honored the audience with a reading about the African-American holiday celebration known as Kwanzaa.

Kelly Watts, Executive Director of the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Foundation, gave a reading about the celebration of Christmas. This was followed by Shane Watts touching the Christmas tree to help it "magically" light up.

The color guard led the procession into the Memorial for the presentation of wreaths, followed by the Girl Scouts singing "God Bless America."

Following the ceremony, attendees enjoyed hot cocoa and cookies at the adjacent Vietnam Era Educational Center and its museum exhibit was open for viewing.

NJVVMF "Salute to Patriotism" Gala 2007

By Sibley Smith, Director of Education, Vietnam Era Educational Center

On Thursday, Nov. 29, the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Foundation, with assistance from the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs, held its annual "Salute to Patriotism" gala at the Vietnam Era Educational Center and the nearby Robert B. Meyner Reception Center in Holmdel.

More than 250 people attended the fundraising commemorative program, which began with a reception at the Vietnam Era Educational Center museum and culminated with dinner and a formal program at the Robert B. Meyner Reception Center. Money raised from the gala goes towards funding educational programming at the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial and the Vietnam Era Educational Center.

Assisting in the program were the 514th Air Mobility Wing Honor Guard, McGuire Air Force Base; Fabiola Franck, West Orange High School; Chaplain (Maj.) Michael Seaman, Beverly Fedorko-Ott, president of the N.J. Vietnam Veterans Memorial Foundation; N.J. Assemblyman Neil M. Cohen; retired Col. Stephen G. Abel, Deputy Commissioner of Veterans Affairs, DMAVA; and, Gary Englert, director, Division of Veterans Services, NJDMAVA.

Abel, Englert and Assemblyman Cohen presented the N.J. Distinguished Service Medal, N.J. Vietnam Service Medal and the N.J. POW Medal, to a number of veterans in the audience.

The keynote speaker was retired Army Gen. Frederick J. Kroesen Jr. Gen. Kroesen, a native of New Jersey and a graduate of Rutgers University, began his service in 1944 as an Army officer, commanding in Europe during World War II, then in Korea. Kroesen also served two tours in Vietnam commanding the 196th Light Infantry Brigade, part of the 23rd Infantry ("Americal") Division. He was wounded in each of these wars as well as in the Cold War, after Vietnam, when he returned to service in Europe as survived an assassination attempt against him while stationed in Germany. Since his retirement 20 years ago, he has continued to serve his country and the military as an advisor and inspirational speaker.

The attendees to the gala were treated indeed to a patriotic spectacle and they greatly helped support the efforts of the non-profit New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Foundation. The money raised during the gala, more than $40,000, will help the foundation in its efforts to provide quality educational and commemorative programs to the public.

Affordable TRICARE benefit for drilling National Guard members

The John Warner National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2007 (P.L. 109-364), enhanced the TRICARE Reserve Select (TRS) health plan. Under this new TRS health plan, effective October 1, 2007, certain members of the Selected Reserve may qualify for health care coverage under TRS at $81 for single coverage and $253 for family coverage. Selected Reserve members who are enrolled or eligible to enroll in a health benefit plan under chapter 89 of title 5 U.S.C. Federal Employees Health Benefit Program (FEHBP), IRR and ING Soldiers are excluded from purchasing TRS.

Soldiers currently enrolled in the three tier TRS program must have transitioned to the new program by Sept. 30, 2007. For more information or to enroll contact your state representative listed on <http://www.tricare.mil/mybenefit>, select the "benefits update" link for the Tricare Reserve Select information page.

Free downloadable CD available for military

By Samantha L. Quigley, American Forces Press Service

Just in time for the holidays, 13 major recording artists have created a musical "Thank You" for the troops.

"CD for the Troops" will be available for anyone with a valid military identification card to download at no cost from the Army and Air Force Exchange service Web site, www.aafes.com, beginning tomorrow, Nov. 17.

Energy Tip of the Week

During the heating season, keep the draperies and shades on your southfacing windows open during the day to allow the sunlight to enter your home and closed at night to reduce the chill you may feel from cold windows.

QUOTES

The less government interferes with private pursuits, the better for the general prosperity.

- Martin Van Buren

What I like in a good author is not what he says, but what

Musicians such as Billy Joel, Brooks & Dunn, the Goo Goo Dolls, Jewel, Josh Groban, Los Lonely Boys, Melissa Ethridge, the Neville Brothers, Sarah McLachlan, the Lt. Dan Band, Montgomery Gentry, the Fray and Five for Fighting contributed to the project.

John Ondrasik, the singer-songwriter who performs under the stage name "five for fighting," spearheaded the project.

Ondrasik is a staunch support of America's service members. He hopes the downloadable version of the CD will be available on the AAFES Web site through April. Hard copies of the CD will be sent to troops in theater, military hospitals and Fisher Houses. Ondrasik hopes the music "inspires, motivates, provides and avenue for reflection or simply distracts you from a mission few can imagine, much less undertake."

"If anything, let each tune be a small piece of home to carry you forward," he said. "Thank you for all you do, and feel free to shoot me an e-mail with requests for 'CD for the Troops II.'"

Identity theft and your child

With all the talk of identity theft, one group has been completely forgotten: your children.

In 2004, more than 400,000 children were identity theft victims; double the number from 2003.

So how is this possible? Simple, children are registered for social security numbers almost immediately after being born. Because they have no history, their records are the perfect opportunity for abuse by identity thieves.

Here are some simple steps to prevent this from happening:

- ❖ Discuss with your child about the importance of keeping their information private and never share that information with strangers.
- ❖ Watch the mail for offers from credit card companies or bills with their name on them; report any suspicious activity to credit bureaus.

For more information on identity theft; go to www.ftc.gov/credit.

Photography contest for military youths

From the desk of Amanda Balas, State Youth Coordinator

Operation Military Kids project in New Jersey is sponsoring a photo contest. The theme is "Families in the Military." Any youth of a military family in any branch of the service, including active duty, National Guard and Reserves is eligible to enter.

The age categories for entries are grades 2-5, grades 6-8 and grades 9-12. Photos can be black and white or color and can be in digital or 35mm format.

Photos must be taken by the youth and should capture a unique moment or setting their family life or in their community that means something special to them. They will be judged on originality and creativity. First and second places will be awarded in each age category.

Contact Amanda Balas, N.J. National Guard State Youth Coordinator, for entry forms and more information at 609-562-0742 or Amanda.balas@us.army.mil. Deadline for submissions is Jan. 14, 2008.

N.J. State Family Readiness Council offers Family Grants Program

The New Jersey National Guard State Family Readiness Council has expanded its Family Grants Program to include an additional grant. There are now two levels of Family Grants; TIER I is the $2,500 grant that has been in place for the past couple of years. The TIER II opens family grants to New Jersey Army and Air National Guard non-deployed service members who were on State Active Duty or State Missions (e.g., hurricanes, floods, border missions) for more than 20 consecutive days. Service members meeting these criteria are eligible to apply for a financial hardship grant up to $1,500. Applications are available at all New Jersey Army and Air National Guard Family Assistance Centers.

Enlisted Association wants YOU!

By retired Command Sgt. Maj. Mike Hughes, EANG-NJ

The Enlisted Association National Guard-New Jersey is off to a good start for 2008 as we have realigned all the committees and filled both the Executive Council and Committees with a cross section of Army and Air, uniformed and retirees, and several junior NCOs. Everyone appears to be enthused and pledges to support the Association in all its efforts. All we need now is for you to get on board as a member and bring your fellow soldiers and airmen with you.

We have many challenges facing us over the next few years whether it is another round of base closures via the Base Realignment Commission (BRAC), reduction in TRICARE benefits, reduction in troop strength, attempts to maintain the retirement age at 60, etc. We need a powerful voice to put our message across to the State and Federal Legislators and this can only be accomplished through a strong membership in our State Association (EANG-NJ) and the National Association (EANGUS).

The new membership year starts on 1 January 2008 and we need your help in making our Association grow. We encourage all enlisted soldiers and airmen to join the Association as Active Members and also welcome all officers, warrant officers, federal, and state employees to join as Associate Members. Applications for membership can be obtained from our website www.eang-nj.org.

Helmets to Hardhats

The New Jersey State Building and Construction Trades Council's Helmets to Hardhats Program (NJ H2H) is designed to help transitioning military personnel, National Guardsmen and Reservists find the careers in the building and construction industry. The program seeks to help military members find a career in one of 15 affiliated trades, such as electrical workers, carpenters and painters.

They work in cooperation with the national Helmets to Hardhats program, adding a personal component to the program's on-line services. NJ H2H offers veterans preparation for successful application to any of New Jersey's registered apprenticeship programs in the building and construction trades. Services include career counseling, entrance test preparation and referral to supportive services.

For program registration and information, visit online at www.njbctc.org/h2h or contact at 732-499-7295 or at H2H@njbctc.org.
