Affordable vacation spots around the world

Are you looking for an affordable vacation spot? The Armed Forces Recreation Center has resorts around the world for members of the Armed Forces, their families and other members of the Total Defense Force. Room rates are based on rank, pay grade, duty status, room size and/or room location. Reservations are required, policies vary by location and guests may not stay more than 30 consecutive days or register again within the following 90-day period. But if you are thinking of Hawaii, Germany, South Korea or Orlando as a possible vacation destination, this just may be the ticket! Visit <http://www.armymwr.com/portal/travel/recreationcenters/> for more information.

ChalleNGe receives award from N.J. DOT

The New Jersey Youth ChalleNGe Academy received a special award at the Clean Community Council awards ceremony held at the Renault Winery on May 25. The award, presented by the New Jersey Clean Community Council in conjunction with the New Jersey Department of Transportation, was given "in recognition and grateful appreciation" of the New Jersey Youth ChalleNGe Academy's effort and dedication to the Adopt-A-Highway Program. Over the years, the cadets of the Youth ChalleNGe Academy have helped police more than 15,000 center-lane miles of New Jersey's highways and have removed more than 52 tons of garbage and debris.

Abel named 'Citizen of the Year'

The Jewish War Veterans, Department of New Jersey, under the direction of Commander Michael Winnick, has selected retired Col. Stephen G. Abel, Deputy Commissioner for Veterans Affairs, as their "Citizen of the Year."

This award is given to that individual who during the past year has made significant contributions for the betterment of the Veterans and Military community. The award will be presented at the Commander's Banquet on Saturday, June 17.

The banquet is part of the Department of New Jersey Jewish War Veterans' Summer Convention to be attended by veterans and their families from across the state of New Jersey. Past Department Commander Norman Rosenshein, who has been nominated to be the next National Commander, along with Past National Commanders, Robert Zweiman and Michael Berman, will also be in attendance. The convention will be held at Kutshers Country Club Resort in the Catskills, June 16-18.

Congratulations, Col. Abel!

8th Annual Unity Day

The event is just around the corner. Time waits for no one.

Please join us on Thursday, June 15 for the 8th Annual Unity Day, "Passport to Diversity", being held at the Joint Force Headquarters Building Drill Floor. Unity Day is held to enhance cross-cultural awareness and promote harmony among all members of the New Jersey National Guard and recognize the contributions of women and minorities. This combined effort of Army and Air, State and Federal, community members and members of both Team McGuire and the Fort Dix Post contribute to the different ethnic and Special Emphasis groups being represented in the New Jersey National Guard. This year's event will start off with a 3K Fun Run/Walk at 8:30 a.m. Opening ceremonies will take place at 10 a.m. with a performance from the New Jersey Youth Challenge Program Drill Team followed by the Presentation of Awards and additional entertainment throughout the event. Multi-cultural displays and food samplings will take place from 10:30 a.m.-3 p.m. We encourage ALL members associated with the New Jersey National Guard to attend. For questions, please contact Capt. Lola Washington, State Equal Employment Manager at 609-562-0856.

"Marriage Enrichment" announces last seminar for 2006

PREP is NOT therapy, and is unlike anything to which you have been exposed. No encounter group or sharing of personal concerns, simply thrilling insights into a more loving, grown filled relationship! PREP begins with teaching effective communication skills, addresses problem resolution strategies that work, and teaches how to discover the hidden issues in every relationship. The program then moves into friendship, forgiveness, fun, and sensuality. If you are interested in attending (soldiers that were deployed are given priority) or need additional information, please call Marie Durling at 609-562-0739. (We have five openings for our June weekend)

PREP is scheduled to be held at the Ramada Inn, East Windsor, New Jersey on June 9-11, 2006.

JT2DC Memorial Walkway offers engraved pavers

The Joint Training and Development Center (JT2DC) recently unveiled the Memorial Walkway to the center. The purpose of the pond and walkway are to serve as a reminder that there are Soldiers in harm's way protecting the freedoms that we all cherish and enjoy.

The concept of the Memorial Walkway was to have Soldiers create a mark by dedicating inscribed bricks. Soldiers have chosen to honor loved ones, family members, friends, and personnel with whom they served.

Anyone interested in purchasing an engraved paver for $50, can contact Command Sgt. Major Timothy Maskery at (609) 562-0539.

For the Families

Youth trip to the Intrepid on August 9

A trip to the Intrepid Sea-Air-Space Museum is scheduled for Wednesday, August 9, from 7:30 a.m.-5 p.m. The Family Programs staff will be taking 40 sons and daughters (ages 10-17) of National Guard Soldiers and Airmen to the Intrepid in New York City from. The slots will be filled on a first come, first serve basis, however, those with a deployed parent will have first priority.

The day will begin with a charter bus picking up youth at the Lawrenceville Armory at 7:30 a.m. and then on to the Teaneck Armory around 9:30 a.m. to pick up the rest of the crew. We will cruise into New York City and begin the festivities. The day will include a self-guided tour of the Intrepid, a video on the history of the Intrepid, lunch from McDonald's, tattoos, rock climbing wall and a 4-D experience ride. We will leave the Intrepid by 3 p.m. to head back to the Teaneck Armory and then on to the Lawrenceville Armory. Are you ready for the fun to begin?

How much does this cost? $5 ... this will cover the costs of the T-shirts we will all wear.

How do I sign up? A parent/guardian must contact Amanda Balas at 609-562-0742 or amanda.balas@us.army.mil to reserve a spot and receive the forms necessary to attend. Needed will be: each child's name, age, shirt size, location of pick up/drop off, permission forms filled out and lunch choice. Lunch will be served on the Intrepid at the in-house McDonald's café.

When can I sign up? You can sign up from now until Friday, June 30 by 4 p.m. (or until all slots are full).

Kaleidoscope Kids – summer camp in New Jersey

There is still time to enroll in this enrichment day camp focused on Astronomy and Space Travel!

The New Jersey State Museum's summer academy, KALEIDOSCOPE KIDS, for ages 6-12, will explore the universe this year! Five weekly sessions, July 10 through August 11, will be devoted to "ENVIRONMENTS IN TIME AND SPACE."

Campers will view the current exhibition: "Heavens Above: Photographs of the Universe from the Hubble Telescope." The State Museum Planetarium will provide special programs for the campers. Field trips will be held every Wednesday, featuring astronomy, rocketry and space exploration.

There will be five difference one-week sessions; enrollment may be for any combination of weeks. Cost is $160 per child per week, with discounts for State employees and members of The Friends of the New Jersey State Museum. For more information, call 609-292-6310.

Guard Family Action Plan

The Guard Family Action Plan (GFAP) identifies issues of concern to Guard members, spouses, parents, children, retirees and civilian employees. The GFAP determines actions necessary to resolve issues and assigns responsibility for actions to the proper staff agency.

The proper staff agency begins at unit level within the chain of command and can include the Departments of the Army and Air Force and the Congress of the United States. You can submit an issue along with your recommendation for a solution through the GFAP website at www.gfap.org. If you have any questions, you can call Marie Durling in the State Family Programs Office at 609-562-0739.

Spouses invited to go on orientation flights

The 108th Air Refueling Wing would like to extend an invitation to the spouses of New Jersey Army and Air National Guardsmen and women who would like to see an aerial refueling up close.

The wing will be having a spouse-only orientation flight on August 18. This is a great opportunity for spouses to see the skills needed to fuel an aircraft more than 20,000 feet in the air. Seats will be on a first-come, first-served basis. If you are unable to get a seat, don't worry. The 108th will have more flights to follow to give everyone a chance to fly.

If you are interested, please call Staff Sgt. Beth Pritchard at (609) 754-4173 or e-mail at elizabeth.Pritchard@njmccgu.ang.af.mil for the form needed to request a seat.

Guard members who would like an orientation flight or would like to nominate their bosses for a flight can also contact Staff Sgt. Pritchard for information and forms.

Youth Camp 2006

This year's Youth Camp will begin Sunday July 16, 2006 and will end with closing ceremonies on Saturday July 22, 2006. There are many activities scheduled for the week at the National Guard Training Center in Sea Girt, NJ. The campers will be able to enjoy the beach, arts and crafts, archery, sports and presentations by other organizations. Campers ages 9-12, Helpers ages 13-15, Junior Volunteers ages 16-17 and Volunteers ages 18 and up are all encouraged to attend. The fee for campers is $100 and volunteers are free. "The Moving Wall" is scheduled to visit New Jersey

"The Moving Wall" is the half-size replica of the Washington, DC Vietnam Veterans Memorial and has been touring the country for almost twenty years. When John Devitt attended the 1982 dedication in Washington, he felt the positive power of "The Wall." He vowed to share that experience with those who did not have the opportunity to go to Washington.

On June 14-19, 2006, the Medford New Jersey Township Council will sponsor "The Moving Wall" exhibit at Freedom Park, 86 Union Street, Medford, New Jersey. Opening ceremonies are planned for Wednesday evening, June 14. For further information, please contact the Recreation Department at 609-654-2512, or visit www.medfordtownship.com or www.themovingwall.org.

A Call To Swiss Ball Sanity - Part 2 of 2

In the spirit of clearing up some of the confusion, here are some guidelines to go by when using swiss ball exercises;

1. While a variety of methods are encouraged, perhaps the one area in which a swiss ball can be used on a consistent basis is abdominal training. Swiss balls allow a full range of motion; the exerciser can easily roll forward during crunches to take any strain off the lower back, and they allow for numerous variations of abdominal exercises.
2. If you are going to do swiss ball work for any other muscle group, do it AFTER your main exercises. The prevailing line of reasoning says to do them first, in order to exhaust the stabilizers and target the prime movers more efficiently. I disagree for that very reason. Exhaust the prime movers first with high intensity work and then hit the stabilizers. Since the prime movers are fatigued, the stabilizers will be forced to work even harder, effectively targeting them in a more efficient manner, while not detracting from the intensity or safety of your core lifts.
3. Limit your swiss ball work to no more than 2 - 3 sets per muscle group being exercised. That does not mean 2 - 3 sets per exercise, but 2 - 3 sets per muscle group, total. Do not overdo the swiss ball work. If you have that much energy left you would get better returns on your investment by doing another set of a basic lift for that muscle group.
4. Run from anyone who tells you that you should be able to stand on the ball and perform a squat on it. While it's a neat trick, last time I checked no surface on this planet is that unstable, making the time and effort necessary to achieve this trick a literal waste of time. If you want to learn how to do this in order to impress your workout partner then that's your business, but any trainer or "expert" that suggests that this is a skill you must possess is not living in reality.

So there you have it, four guidelines to go by when trying to integrate the swiss ball into a scientifically-based training program. The swiss ball is a great tool to put in your bag of tricks, but it can never replace good old hard work and moving a mountain of iron. Stick with the basics, and you will garner far better results for your efforts.
