Commander's call full of history

On Saturday, Dec. 7, the 108th Air Refueling Wing saw two historic events take place during Commander's Call.

Col. Robert D. Brazel assumed command of the newly activated 108th Contingency Response and the 150th Air Refueling Squadron was deactivated.

The Air Force Air Mobility Command has eight contingency response units in the continental U.S.; two of which are in the National Guard. The 108th CRG is the first of the two Guard CRGs to be activated.

Comprised of more than 100 Airmen, their mission is one of a rapid entry force designed to assess and open an airbase, perform initial airfield operations and ensure a smooth transition to combat sustainment. To do this, the group is filled with Airmen from various fields: medical, Intel, force protection, quick turn maintenance and more.

According to Col. Brazel, one advantage to having Guard members perform as members of a CRG, "is that we do not have the turnover rate that the active duty has; one we are trained and proficient, we become the teachers."

As the doors opened to the CRG, the 150th ARS found itself encasing its flag as the squadron was deactivated. After a long and safe history – with more than 52 years of accident-free flying – the squadron said its goodbye.

The unit began in 1956 at Newark Airport flying the C-46 Commando as part of the Air Transport Command. When the C-46 was retired, the unit flew the C-119 Flying Boxcar and became part of the Military Air Transport Command and later converted to the C-121 Constellation.

In 1965, the 150th moved to McGuire. The next aircraft change came in 1973 when the pilots found themselves behind the controls of the C-7 Caribou. Four years later, the unit was officially became the 150th ARS and went through its last aircraft conversion when it received the KC-135A Stratotanker.

Over the 31 years, the unit saw the plane convert to the KC-135E model and in 1993 combine with the 108th Air Refueling Wing. The squadron's long history saw many changes, missions, Airmen, bases, and countries with outstanding service and honor.

Military families honored during Holiday Express at Asbury Park

By Wayne Woolley, DMAVA Public Affairs Specialist

ASBURY PARK -- More than 500 family members of deployed New Jersey National Guard soldiers and airmen enjoyed an afternoon of food, games and music at a party thrown in their honor by Holiday Express. The party on Dec. 7 marked the first time 16-year-old charity feted military families at one of its trademark holiday parties, which are headlined by a band of more than 80 professional musicians.

Tim McLoone, the Holiday Express founder and bandleader, said it was long overdue. "We've been wanting to do something for the military for the longest time," he said.

Besides a concert, there were appearances by dignitaries ranging from Gov. Jon Corzine to Santa Claus.

Albanians visit New Jersey, celebrate anniversary

By Wayne Woolley, Public Affairs Specialist

LAWRENCEVILLE – The New Jersey National Guard recently celebrated the 15th anniversary of its alliance with the Republic of Albania through the State Partnership Program.

Soldiers and Airmen from New Jersey have worked with their counterparts in Albania since 1993 to modernize the former communist nation's defense forces and prepare it for membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). Albania will join the 26-nation alliance in April 2009.

Albanian Minister of Defense Gazmend Oketa said New Jersey provided critical assistance to help it reach its longstanding goal of NATO membership.

"The Albanian armed forces are proud of our achievements and we are proud to say we were not alone," Oketa told National Guard members who gathered at luncheon held at the Lawrenceville Armory in his honor. "The Albanian armed forces welcomed your help -- and your friendship."

Facts about hunger in America

Poverty is a major cause of hunger. In the last decade, while personal income increased among the rich, so did poverty among the poor.

In September 2008 SNAP/Food Stamps participation rose to 31,586,934, the highest participation level on record.

Of those households who receive food assistance, 60 percent are going through a crises situation such as, loss of job or income, sudden illness and high medical bills or disability

Of those people receiving emergency food assistance, 70 percent have no health insurance.

Only five percent of people receiving emergency food assistance are homeless.

Working poor families earn too little to cover their needs for food, shelter, child care, transportation and medical expenses.

While New Jersey ranks as the second in median household income in the U.S. (2007 figures), there are still 8.8 percent of its citizens that are labeled Food Insecure. (Food insecurity refers to the lack of access to enough food to fully meet basic needs at all times due to lack of financial resources, according to frac.com.)

When planning your Christmas contributions, think of your local food bank.

The Army Information Line (1-800-833-6622) is designed to help all Soldiers and their Family members whether they are deployed; stationed stateside or overseas; are brand new to the Army; or are 30 year veterans.

In addition to The Army Information Line, Army Well-Being's Army Families Online Web site www.ArmyFamiliesOnline.org recently welcomed its 2-millionth visitor this year.

The Army Information Line also celebrates its 25-year existence of providing information and referral services to those Soldiers and Family members.

When retiring, check for military service earnings

Here is some information from the Social Security Administration pertaining to military service earnings that may come in handy to those planning on retiring soon. You can find more about this credit at <http://www.ssa.gov/retire2/military.htm>.

Since 1957, if you had military service earnings for active duty, including active duty for training, you paid Social Security taxes on those earnings. Since 1988, inactive duty service in the Armed Forces reserves (such as weekend drills) has also been covered by Social Security.

Under certain circumstances, special extra earnings for your military service from 1957 through 2001 can be credited to your record for Social Security purposes. Special extra earnings credits are NOT given for inactive duty training. These extra earnings credits may help you qualify for Social Security or increase the amount of your Social Security benefit.

If your active military service occurred from 1957-1967, the extra credits will be added to your record when you apply for Social Security benefits. If the time was from 1968-2001, there is no need to do anything for the extra credits; they were automatically added to your record. Time after 2001 receives no special extra earnings.

How much is the credit? For service from 1957-1977, you will be credited with $300 in additional earnings for each calendar quarter in which you received active duty basic pay. For service from 1978-2001, for every $300 in active duty basic pay, you are credited with $100 in earnings up to a maximum in of $1,200 a year. If you enlisted after Sept. 7, 1980, and did not complete at least 24 months of active duty or your full tour, you may not be able to receive the additional earnings.

DMAVA Green

For those of you who have not pulled out the lights to decorate the tree and tried to untangle that maze of strands that must have knitted themselves together since you put them away last January, maybe this is the time to buy all new lights and make them LED.

According to reports, each 100-bulb strand of incandescent holiday lights can contribute as much as 240 pounds of CO2 emissions during the month of December. On the other hand, LED lights do not have the same fire hazards and can last up to 50,000 hours.

The LED lights use 90 percent less energy than the traditional incandescent bulbs. So, not only do you save the environment but you can also find a money savings that could translate into a lower electric bill. And that could mean more money to pay the

Wanaque FOP sells T-shirts to benefit FRG

From Thomas P. Norton, Detective Captain/OEM Coordinator, Wanaque Police Dept.

Wanaque Police F.O.P. Supports

NEW JERSEY'S HEROES

NEW JERSEY ARMY NATIONAL GUARD

Let me introduce myself – my son is deployed with the 50th IBCT and I have gotten involved with the Riverdale FRG. As my son was nearing his deployment all the members that I work with at the Wanaque Police Department kept asking what can we do or buy for Kevin (my son) and at that time there wasn't another thing he could take with him.

The Wanaque Police Department F.O.P. came up with the idea to help out Riverdale FRG by selling T-shirts to help the FRG's cause to send packages overseas, help the families as needed and the other programs that they will be running. The following message has gone out to as many people as we could find and we are asking that for your assistance in either purchasing a shirt or helping to send the following message to others.

The Wanaque Police Department is selling T-Shirts to help support the New Jersey Army National Guard "Family Readiness Group" in their effort to send packages to our soldiers, assist the families and support their causes while their family members are deployed.

As you are aware, over 3000 members of the NJ Army National Guard were deployed to support "Operation Iraqi Freedom" in August and we would like your support to help

The T-Shirts are $20 each with ALL profits going to the FRG.

If you or any member of your organization would like to purchase a shirt you can e-mail me (tnorton@wanaqueborough.com) or call me, Capt. Ken Fackina or Sgt. Charlie Huber (973-835-5600) or they can mail a check to our attention at - Wanaque Police Department 579 Ringwood Avenue, Wanaque NJ 07465. Please indicate the size or sizes needed. If the T-shirt(s) need to be mailed we would ask that the money include $1.80 per shirt for postage since we don't want to cut into the profits that will be donated to the FRG.

Our goal is to sell 1,000 of these gray colored shirts.

Pass on your BDUs, black boots to Civil Air Patrol cadets

Now that the ABUs and ACUs are filling your closet, what's happening to the BDUs and black boots that you used to wear? Before you start to tear the uniforms up for rags to wash the car, there is a worthy cause that can use them. The New Jersey wing of the Civil Air Patrol is a civilian, non-profit organization and an auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force. There are more than 1,100 members in the N.J. Wing, about half of them are cadets between the ages 12-21 and will wear the BDUs as part of their training.

The CAP program can give cadets a step up into their adult life – the first female pilot on the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds demonstration team, Maj. Nicole Malachowski, and the first female solo pilot in the Thunderbirds, Maj. Samantha Glinski Weeks, both got their start in CAP.

Uniform items can be dropped at the CAP N.J. Wing headquarters on McGuire Air Force Base, building 3412 on Neely Road (around the corner from the McGuire Medical Clinic). Duty hours are Monday and Wednesday through Friday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Tuesday noon to 9 p.m. For more information, call (609) 723-8200 or e-mail hq@njwgc.cap.gov.

- ❖ Limited access to a computer or a member's reluctance to use MBOS will not be considered sufficient circumstances to allow manual loan processing.

Employees who are already registered MBOS users currently have access to the online loan application through their MBOS account.

Employees who are new to MBOS can access MBOS after they register with both the MyNewJersey Web site and MBOS. Registration is free; however, the registration process requires several steps and new users should carefully follow the MBOS registration instructions. Visit <http://www.state.nj.us/treasury/pensions/mbosregister.htm> for a complete list of instructions. If, after following the MBOS Registration Instructions, you still need assistance registering for or using MBOS, please contact the MBOS Help Desk at (609) 777-0534 or send an e-mail with the subject line "MBOS E-mail" to: pensions.nj@treas.state.nj.us

Employees required to register for MBOS

From the desk of Lisa J. Dandrea, Human Resources, Personnel Assistant

MBOS is the Member Benefits Online System. Through MBOS, employees may review their pension contributions, loan status, health benefits information, update their beneficiary information, apply for retirement, as well as many other applications. It has been encouraged that all employees register for this helpful tool. However Pensions is now working on MBOS being a requirement in order for employees to make certain updates to their personal information.

Effective immediately, in all cases where an employee is eligible to become a member of the Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS), the employer will be required to submit all enrollment information to Pensions via online. Important to note is that the online PERS Enrollment Application does not include the Designation of Beneficiary page. Instead, once the member is enrolled and issued a pension number, they must register for a MBOS account at: www.state.nj.us/treasury/pensions/mbosregister.htm and complete the online Beneficiary Designation form. Until the member completes his or her Designation of Beneficiary, the member's "Estate" will be the beneficiary of record.

Current employees –note, even if you are already enrolled into PERS, if you wish to make any changes to your beneficiary information, you too will need to be registered for MBOS. Members will not be able to submit the Change in Beneficiary Designation paper form since this will no longer be acceptable through the Division of Pensions and Benefits.

Visit the link above for complete instructions to register for MBOS. If you encounter any problems with registration, you may e-mail Pensions and Benefits with your questions/concerns and they can assist you through the process. You may also obtain a tri-fold brochure with MBOS instructions from your Human Resources Office.

State employees who move, marry must contact HR department

From the desk of Lisa Dandrea, Human Resources, Personnel Assistant

If you are a state employee, working for DMAVA, Vets Haven, and the Cemetery, and you have an address change and/or a name change, it is extremely important that you contact Lisa Dandrea in the Human Resources Office. There have been a lot of issues with tax W2s, pension statements and pay checks being returned to our office, as well as some employees not receiving their new health cards, all due to incorrect addresses. Your address change is not automatic and it is not limited to completing a new W4. There are specific forms for employees to complete that updates their new information statewide. Your change of address or name affects your paycheck, your pension statements, W2s, loans, any information sent out by your health care provider, promotional announcements from Dept. of Personnel, etc. If you have had an address/name change and have not updated your information, please make sure you contact Lisa Dandrea in HRD-ESB at 609-530-6888 or e-mail Lisa.Dandrea@njdmava.state.nj.us.

Battlemind supports Soldiers, families through deployment cycle

Battlemind is a term used to describe combat readiness. The first Battlemind product was a mental health post-deployment briefing. It quickly became a training system supporting Soldiers and families across the seven phases of the deployment cycle. The Battlemind system includes separate pre-deployment training modules for Soldiers, unit leaders, health-care providers and spouses. Psychological debriefings are given in theater and upon redeployment. There is also a post-deployment module for spouses and several post-deployment modules for Soldiers. Pre-deployment Battlemind tells Soldiers what they are likely to see, to hear, to think and to feel while deployed - by describing the worst-case scenario. Post-deployment Battlemind addresses safety concerns, relationship issues, normalized combat-related mental health reactions and symptoms -- along with teaching Soldiers when they should seek mental health support for themselves or for their buddies. All of the Battlemind products (training modules, brochures, debriefings and videos are available on the Web site, www.battlemind.org.

"The number of nominations was outstanding last year," said retired Army Col. Carmen Venticinque, chairman, New Jersey state field committee for Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve. "I encourage the more than 20,000 citizen Soldiers, Airmen, Sailors, Marines and Coast Guard members to nominate their employer this year."

The New Jersey ESGR held a luncheon for all the Freedom Award nominees and the Jersey City Fire Department was honored with the Pro Patria award along with Campbell Soup and Jenny Engineering.

Nominations will be accepted at www.freedomaward.mil/nominate.aspx until Jan. 19, 2009. The Secretary of Defense Employer Support Freedom Award is the U.S. government's highest recognition given to outstanding employers.
