Commercial Driver License Medical Certificate Requirements (Federal Regulation CFR 49 383.73 and N.J.A.C. 13:21-23-28(l))

The Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) has granted a one year extension to January 30, 2015 for Commercial Driver License (CDL) holders to continue to carry a valid paper copy of their medical certificate when operating a Commercial Motor Vehicle (CMV). The document must be made available for review upon request at a roadside law enforcement stop or inspection by federal and state commercial motor vehicle inspectors.
