Fall 2019 Intern: Juan Carlos Belmonte

August 27, 2019

NJEFA welcomes Juan Carlos Belmonte to the Authority's team as its 2019 Fall Intern. Mr. Belmonte is a Senior at The College of New Jersey where he majors in Political Science and Business Administration and served as a Student Trustee on the College's Board of Trustees and its Business and Infrastructure Committee. He also serves as a military service member in the New Jersey National Guard.

Last year, Mr. Belmonte interned in the Office of the Secretary of Higher Education where he worked on policy matters and outreach. He also assisted in the release of the Secretary's master plan for New Jersey higher education, Where Opportunity Meets Innovation, a plan that builds a framework to ensure that all New Jersey citizens can obtain a high-quality credential or degree to help them succeed in life.

NJEFA's new intern program provides experiential learning opportunities for students while they are still attending college. Commenting on the NJEFA's first Intern under the new program, Executive Director, Eric Brophy, said "We are looking forward to helping Juan Carlos gain as much exposure as possible to higher education finance through the lens of an independent Authority and we hope he finds the experience beneficial as he prepares to enter the workforce upon graduation."

Mr. Belmonte will be with the Authority throughout the Fall. He will be working within all of its Divisions to gain a broad understanding of the Authority's role in supporting campus building and infrastructure development at New Jersey's colleges and universities.

Welcome to the NJEFA team, Juan Carlos!
