

NOTICE

INDEPENDENT REGISTERED MUNICIPAL ADVISOR EXEMPTION

The New Jersey Educational Facilities Authority, (“NJEFA”) is posting this information with the intent that market participants may provide advice to it regarding municipal financial products or the issuance of municipal securities (including, but not limited to, investments of bond proceeds and escrow investments) and utilize the independent registered municipal advisor exemption from the municipal advisor definition in Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

NJEFA has retained and is currently represented by, and will rely on the advice of (in the sense that it will seek and consider the advice, analysis and perspective of, before making a determination), Lamont Financial Services Corporation, an Independent Registered Municipal Advisor, in considering information (other than general information that does not involve a recommendation) that is provided to NJEFA regarding municipal financial products or the issuance of municipal securities (including, but not limited to, investments of bond proceeds and escrow investments). Please note that, aside from correspondence between an underwriter and municipal advisor that is mandated by legislation or regulation, the underwriter should not speak directly with or send documents to the municipal advisor unless specifically directed to by NJEFA.

This statement does not negate any obligations that broker dealer / underwriting firms may have to NJEFA under federal and state securities statutes and regulations as well as purchasing requirements and common law, nor in any way should it be construed that NJEFA is waiving any rights or privileges it might otherwise have.
