New Jersey Educational Facilities Authority Announces Resignation of Executive Director, Jeremy Spector

NJEF A announces that Jeremy A. Spector provided notice of his intention to retire from the New Jersey Educational Facilities Authority and his positions as Executive Director and Secretary effective August 31, 2017. Mr. Spector joined the Authority in November 2015.

The Authority's Deputy Executive Director, Sheryl Stitt, has assumed the responsibilities for the management and operations of the Authority until the appointment by the Members of a successor Executive Director and Secretary. Ms. Stitt has served as Acting Executive Director on three prior occasions and has been a senior member of the Authority's management team for more than seventeen years.

On behalf of the Members and staff, Authority Chair Joshua Hodes said, "We appreciate Jerry's commitment and dedicated service to the State's higher education institutions and to the citizens of New Jersey. We all wish Jerry well in his future endeavors."
