Law Enforcement Support Office

Providing Equipment to the Crimefighter

We Are The Law Enforcement Support Office Under Section 1033 of the National

Defense Authorization Act of Fiscal Year 1997, Congress authorized the Secretary of Defense to transfer personal property that is excess to the Department of Defense (DoD) to State and Federal Agencies. The Law Enforcement Support Office (LESO) administers and executes 10 § USC Section 2576a, for the Director, Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) Disposition Services and is a primary field level activity of DLA.

DLA Disposition Services LESO headquarters is located in Battle Creek, MI.

Since inception, the LESO has transferred over 13 million pieces of equipment which has significantly enhanced Law Enforcement Agency capabilities while saving tax-payers more than $6.8 billion dollars.

The LESO Team is dedicated to providing superior service to the Law Enforcement community by transferring excess equipment "from the Warfighter to the Crimefighter."

Success Stories

"In using DLA's LESO 1033 Program, our agency was able to save tens of thousands of dollars that it is unlikely we would have been able to allocate otherwise. We greatly appreciate what the 1033 Program does for Law Enforcement, and I have enjoyed working with its staff."

Before and After

"Some of the equipment we have received through the LESO has played a vital role in allowing our officers to go home safely to their families."

Before and After

"The 1033 Program has allowed our agency to acquire equipment for our officers that allows us to better serve and protect the community. Without this program we would not be able maintain day to day operation, thanks."
