

Community Meeting

When:

Wednesday, Oct. 16, 2019, 10 AM

Where:

Stockton University

Campus Center Event Room

Galloway, NJ 08205 Galloway, NJ 08205

What:

All 21 County Prosecutors in New Jersey will hold community forums this fall on local college campuses to address the issue of campus sexual violence. The events on campus sexual violence are part of the 21-County, 21st Century Community Policing Project – or “21/21 Project” – that was launched one year ago by Attorney General Grewal to promote stronger police-community relations by bringing law enforcement and community stakeholders together in every county a minimum four times each year for town hall meetings, roundtable discussions, and other events addressing vital issues.

Who:

DIVISION ON WOMEN: DANIELLE SCOTT, PANELIST

ATLANTIC COUNTY PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE: PROSECUTOR DAMON G. TYNER, PANELIST

ATLANTIC COUNTY PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE: VICTIM WITNESS COORDINATOR RAYMOND ROYSTER, MODERATOR

STOCKTON UNIVERSITY: DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC SAFETY ADRIAN WIGGINS, PANELIST

STOCKTON UNIVERSITY: DIRECTOR OF WOMEN'S, GENDER & SEXUALITY CENTER LAURIE DUTTON, PANELIST

STOCKTON UNIVERSITY: STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE JESS LANDOW, TEAL RIBBON PROJECT

