Program Summary

This intensive 4-day trial advocacy program combines presentations and learn-by-doing workshops, culminating in a mock trial on the last day. The presentations, which will be by experienced assistant prosecutors and deputy attorneys general, will cover direct and cross examination, advanced cross examination and impeachment, persuasive use of exhibits, case theory, opening statements, closing arguments, and the ethics of witness preparation. The participants, in turn, will perform in a series of learn-by-doing workshops, in which they will incorporate what they learned from the presentations and others in dealing with discrete phases of the trial process. All participants then will "try" their case in a mock trial on the last day of the program.

Who Should Attend?

This program is intended for new assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies, attendance for which is determined by each office.

Who Is the Faculty?

The faculty consists of experienced assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputy and assistant attorneys general who have extensive expertise in the subject matter on which they are presenting.

How Do I Register?

Registration is through each office's training coordinator. Please do not attempt to register directly with the Institute.
